Introduction

This transcript is presented as-is, and is certainly incomplete. According to the Senate report, the Guccifer 2.0 account communicated with over 1,200 unique users, exchanging approximately 15,000 messages. Based off of this, this transcript currently contains only about 5% of Guccifer 2.0's known communications. More will be added if and when they become available.

Things are presented in approximate chronological order. However, due to timezone differences, some estimates had to be made. Some external events related to the hacking chronology as well as DCLeaks messages are included for context.

Guccifer 2.0 DNC's servers hacked by a lone hacker

Worldwide known cyber security company CrowdStrike announced that the Democratic National Committee (DNC) servers had been hacked by “sophisticated” hacker groups.

I'm very pleased the company appreciated my skills so highly))) But in fact, it was easy, very easy.

Guccifer may have been the first one who penetrated Hillary Clinton's and other Democrats' mail servers. But he certainly wasn't the last. No wonder any other hacker could easily get access to the DNC's servers.

Shame on CrowdStrike: Do you think I've been in the DNC's networks for almost a year and saved only 2 documents? Do you really believe it?

Here are just a few docs from many thousands I extracted when hacking into DNC's network.

They mentioned a leaked database on Donald Trump. Did they mean this one?

TOP NARRATIVES

TRUMP HAS NO CORE

One thing is clear about Donald Trump, there is only one person he has ever looked out for and that's himself. Whether it's American workers, the Republican Party, or his wives, Trump's only fidelity has been to himself and with that he has shown that he has no problem lying to the American people. Trump will say anything and do anything to get what he wants without regard for those he harms.

Trump Is Loyal Only To Himself. Trump has repeatedly proven that he is only loyal to himself. Trump has switched his policy positions and political party affiliations multiple times over the course of the last few decades, most often latching on to whatever set of ideas or party is in power or whichever reactionary bandwagon he could jump on to keep his name in the headlines. And despite his rants against outsourcing, China, and free trade deals, Trump has eagerly invested abroad and showed little loyalty to America in allowing his clothing line to import clothes from China. He's laid off American workers and even complained that American wages are "too high." Even in his personal life, Trump has openly discussed his view that fidelity is the right thing to do unless a marriage is going poorly, and described his relationship with women as a game.

Trump Is A Liar. While Trump's campaign speeches and commentary have grabbed attention for being outrageous and often offensive, they have also been marked by a consistent theme: dishonesty. Trump has repeatedly used dishonesty and straight-up lies to back up his extremist rhetoric. Trump repeatedly defended a bold-faced lie that he watched "thousands" of Muslims celebrating the attack on the World Trade Center in New Jersey on 9/11. Trump falsely claimed that President Obama was not born in the United States, and when challenged on the facts, simply resorts to polling evidence showing the popularity of the issue among the GOP base. What is clear is that Trump will say anything – no matter how untrue and ugly it may be – to advance his position in the presidential race.

DIVISIVE AND OFFENSIVE CAMPAIGN

There's no nice way of saying it – Donald Trump is running a campaign built on fear-mongering, divisiveness, and racism. His major policy announcements have included banning all Muslims from entering the U.S., and calling Mexican immigrants "rapists" and "drug dealers" while proposing a U.S.-Mexico border wall. And Trump's campaign rallies have become a reflection of the hateful tone of his campaign, with protestors being roughed up and audience members loudly calling for violence.

Trump Proposed Banning All Muslims From Entering The U.S. In December 2015, Donald Trump called for a "total and complete" ban on all Muslims entering the United States. Trump's spokeswoman said under his plan, even American citizens traveling abroad would be prohibited from reentering the United States and Trump defiantly told his supporters he didn't care if his plan was politically incorrect. Trump claimed his plan was "common sense," citing two polls for support; however, one of the polls was published by a group the Southern Poverty Law Center called an "extremist think tank" and was widely discredited. The other poll's publisher – the highly respected, nonpartisan Pew Research Center – said it could not even determine what polls Trump was referring to. Trump's call to ban all Muslims from entering the U.S. was widely condemned – one of his rivals for the Republican nomination likened it to Nazism, and even former Vice President Dick Cheney denounced it, saying it "goes against everything we stand for and believe in." Trump's plan was supported by some groups, however. White Supremacists and neo-Nazis are thrilled about Trump's call to ban all Muslims from entering the U.S. and see it as an energizing force for their movement.

Trump's Campaign Is Defined By Offensive And Extreme Immigration Rhetoric. Trump's campaign is fueled by extreme, xenophobic and sometimes dangerous rhetoric about immigration. Trump doesn't just oppose comprehensive immigration reform like his fellow GOPers, he vilifies immigrants for political gain and proposes outrageous solutions based on absurd and false information. One of the centerpieces of Trump's campaign is his pledge to build a "great wall" along the U.S.-Mexico border to keep out the "druggies, drug dealers, rapists and killers" coming up from Mexico. As if his promise to rescind President Obama's executive actions on immigration, deport American citizens whose family members lack proper documentation, and end birthright citizenship for children he proudly derides as "anchor babies" weren't bad enough on their own, Trump's declared he will use a "deportation force" to execute the mass deportation of approximately 11 million undocumented immigrants based on the model of Dwight Eisenhower's brutal and deadly mass deportation of the mid-1950s.

- Trump Says He Would Build A Border Wall To Keep "Druggies, Drug Dealers, Rapists, And Killers" Out Of The U.S. One of the centerpieces of Trump's campaign is his pledge to build a "great wall" along the U.S.-Mexico border to keep out the "druggies, drug dealers, rapists and killers" coming up from Mexico. Trump then repeatedly stood by his assertion after it created considerable controversy.
- Trump Has Banned Univision From Events And Kicked Its Reporters Out Of Press Conferences. Donald Trump's disrespectful behavior towards Univision and its reporters is unlike anything we've seen from a presidential candidate in recent memory. Trump has barred Univision from covering his rallies, and removed a Univision reporter from a press conference after getting angry at questions regarding his broad mischaracterizations about immigrants being criminals.

Trump Has Repeatedly Offended Minorities With Demeaning Comments. From the start of his campaign, and well before it, Donald Trump has repeatedly made demeaning and offensive comments about minority groups in the U.S. In June 2015, Trump said Black youths are at "a point where they've just about never done more poorly, there's no spirit, there's killings on an hourly basis, virtually, in places like Baltimore and Chicago and many other places." And his comments pre-date his presidential campaign by decades: in 1991, he was quoted as saying "laziness is a trait in blacks."

BAD BUSINESSMAN

Despite Trump's continual boasting about his business success, he has repeatedly run into serious financial crises in his career and his record raises serious questions about whether he is qualified to manage the fiscal challenges facing this country. Trump's business resume includes a long list of troubling issues, including his company's record of forcing people from their homes to make room for developments and outsourcing the manufacturing of his clothing line to take advantage of lower wage countries like China and Mexico. His insight about the marketplace has proven wrong many times, including in the run-up to the Great Recession. And Trump's record of irresponsible and reckless borrowing to build his empire – behavior that sent his companies into bankruptcy four times – is just one indication of how out-of-touch he is with the way regular Americans behave and make a living, and it casts doubt on whether he has the right mindset to tackle the country's budget problems.

Trump's Business Have Gone Into Bankruptcy Multiple Times. Donald Trump likes to brag that he is "very smart," tout his Ivy League education and exaggerate his net worth, but in reality, Trump is not the master businessman he claims to be. Donald Trump's businesses have gone bankrupt four times and he only barely was able to avoid personal bankruptcy himself. Finally, and most ironically, Donald Trump

Some hundred sheets! This's a serious case, isn't it?

And it's just a tiny part of all docs I downloaded from the Democrats networks.

DNC chairwoman Debbie Wasserman Schultz said no financial documents were compromised. Nonsense! Just look through the Democratic Party lists of donors!

SELECTED RECAP

A. Priorities for the first 100 days

- Iraq — On his first day as President, Barack Obama would give the military a new mission: ending the Iraq war.¹ Barack Obama will make getting out of Iraq his first priority as president.²
- Al-Qaeda / Taliban — As Commander-in-Chief, I will have no greater priority than taking out these terrorists who threaten America, and finishing the job against the Taliban.³
- Middle East Peace Process — From the start of his Administration, Barack Obama would take an active role in the Middle East Peace Process and personally commit to do everything he could advance the cause of peace.⁴
- The Americas — Pursue aggressive, principled, and sustained diplomacy in the Americas from Day One.⁵
- Speech to Islamic forum — Give a speech at a major Islamic forum in the first 100 days of his administration.⁶
- Korean Peninsula — Barack Obama would work from the very beginning of his term in office to secure the American people and our interests in the Korean peninsula.⁷

B. Personnel-Related Issues

New Jobs/Offices that Definitely Require Personnel

- National Declassification Center — will serve as a clearinghouse to set rules and regulations for declassification for federal agencies, and to make declassification secure but routine, efficient, and cost-effective.⁸
- Military Families Advisory Board — consisting of experts and family representatives from each service, it would help identify and develop actionable policies to ease the burden on spouses and families. The board would provide an institutionalized conduit (presently missing) for the evolving concerns of military families to be brought to the attention of senior policymakers and the public.⁹
- State Department — Office of Conflict Prevention and Resolution — office with senior ambassadors to support high-level negotiations and provide the expertise and capacity to seize opportunities or address crises as they arise.¹⁰
- Create a senior position to coordinate domestic intelligence gathering.¹¹
- National Cyber Advisor — Establish the position of national cyber advisor who will report directly to the president and will be responsible for coordinating federal agency efforts and development of national cyber policy.¹²
- Reinstate the position of Special Envoy to the Americas, which has been vacant since June 2004.¹³

Significant New Programs that May Require New Senior-Level Personnel

- Mobile Development Teams (MDTs) that bring together personnel from the military, the Pentagon, the State Department, and USAID.¹⁴
- Civilian Assistance Corps — (modeled after similar auxiliary groups in Virginia and California) would provide each federal agency a pool of volunteer experts (doctors, lawyers, engineers, city planners, agriculture specialists, police, etc.) willing to deploy in crises. They would be pre-trained and screened for deployment to supplement departments' expeditionary teams.¹⁵
- Create a National Family Locator System to help families locate loved ones after a disaster.¹⁶
- Add Value to Agriculture Initiative (AVTA) — Spur research and innovation aimed at bringing about a Green Revolution for Africa, by partnering with land grant institutions, private

philanthropies and business to support agricultural processing through increased investment in research and development for improved seeds, irrigation methods, and affordable and safe fertilizers.¹⁷ Make critical investments in providing the package of tools needed to allow poor farmers to succeed in the agricultural market, including by providing training in regulation and quality control standards and by increasing finance and financing instruments for rural enterprises as well as access to markets.¹⁸

- Global Education Fund — Devote at least $2 billion of the $50 billion in foreign assistance to a Global Education Fund to eliminate the global education deficit, fill the financing gap for primary education, and offer an alternative to extremist schools.¹⁹
- Rapid Response Fund — A seed fund that will provide a shot of a adrenaline to young democracies and post-conflict societies, through foreign aid, debt relief, technical assistance and investment packages that show the people of newly hopeful countries that democracy and peace deliver, and the United States stands by them.²⁰
- Shared Security Partnership Program — Will forge an international intelligence and law enforcement infrastructure to take down terrorist networks.²¹ Invest $5 billion over three years to improve counter-terrorism cooperation between U.S. and foreign intelligence and law enforcement agencies.²² Program will include information sharing, as well as funding for training, operations, border security, anti-corruption programs, technology, and the targeting of terrorist financing.²³

Significant Adjustments to Existing Jobs/Offices

- Restructured USAID — Coordinate and consolidate PEPFAR, Millennium Challenge Corporation, Middle East Partnership Initiative and many foreign assistance programs currently housed in more than 20 executive agencies into a restructured, empowered and streamlined USAID.²⁴
- Director of National Intelligence — Give the DNI a fixed term like the director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the chairman of the Federal Reserve.²⁵
- Elevate the Chief of the National Guard to the rank of four-star general and make the chief a member of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the top military advisory panel to the president.²⁶
- National Security Council — empower a Deputy National Security Advisor to develop integrated strategies to build capable, democratic states and ensure policy coherence in the application of development and democracy programs as key elements of U.S. power.²⁷
- National Security Council — Appoint a deputy security advisor to be in charge of coordinating all U.S. programs aimed at reducing the risk of nuclear terrorism and weapons proliferation. The deputy will work closely with him, the national security adviser, the director of the Office of Management and Budget, and senior officials of the relevant cabinet departments. The deputy will have budgetary oversight over all programs related to nuclear security.²⁸

New docs from DNC network: lots of financial reports and donors' personal data

Here I upload a new part of docs from the DNC network.

As Debbie Schultz from DNC said no financial information or secret documents were stolen.

It appears there are a lot of financial reports, donors lists and their detailed personal information including e-mail addresses and private cell phone numbers.

Ha! Ha! Ha! Who still doubts I extracted more than 2 files?

I got tons of files and docs!!!

Dossier on Hillary Clinton from DNC. Expect it

I'd like to announce the next piece of docs from DNC.

I found something like a dossier on Hillary Clinton on the its server. It's a heavy folder of docs that will attract your attention. You'll like it.

Expect it. I'll publish them on June 21 at 10 a.m (ET).

It is the owner of the good work, who was killed as a "homicide" work, written in the "case of a violent murder" and "homicide" – and not, as he would use to be writing more than a single work of complete fiction – without a doubt of violence.

Telnet, we believe, is based on work by the author himself. These Telnetware, recorded multiple times as reported. The two companies, however, both say, "nothing" and that he recorded his data from the same operating system. (Right, recorded on both the <http://www.telnet.com> and the Telnet Web.)

While it was established that the two types of the same word in the different word pairs are not usually related, only in Chinese the two words before different Chinese characters of them, Vietnamese was found to show that the left-hand word always one of the two.

Friends and Allies Talking Points Hillary for America

Calling for an end to the era of mass incarceration, Hillary Clinton delivered the keynote address at the 2016 Samuel R. David Jr. Studies Leadership and Public Policy Forum at Columbia University today. The remarks addressed the tragic situation in Baltimore and laid out a broader vision for criminal justice reform that included specific policy proposals.

Baltimore Tragedy Is the Heart Hillary said that the crisis in Baltimore “taps at the soul” of the nation and called on the country to “re-commit to justice with some hard truths about race and justice in America.”

- She recounted together the stories about Walter Scott of South Carolina, Tanisha Rose of Ohio, Eric Garner of Staten Island and now Freddie Gray in Baltimore.
- She said that the criminal justice system has gotten “out of balance” and said “everyone in every community benefits when there is respect for the law and when everyone in every community is supported by the law.”

“End the Era of Mass Incarceration.” Hillary called for reforms to our criminal justice system by changing the way we approach prosecution and prisons, including reforms to probation and drug diversion, increasing support for mental health and drug treatment, and providing alternative punishments for low-level offenders, especially young people.

- She cited an estimated 1.7 million Black men who are “missing” from their families and communities because of incarceration and premature death.

Build Consensus for Every Police Department in the Country. Hillary pledged innovative strategies to fight crime and rebuild trust between law enforcement and the communities they represent.

Dossier on Hillary Clinton from DNC

This's time to keep my word and here're the docs I promised you.

It's not a report in one file, it's a big folder of docs devoted to Hillary Clinton that I found on the DNC server.

The DNC collected all info about the attacks on Hillary Clinton and prepared the ways of her defense, memos, etc., including the most sensitive issues like email hacks.

As an example here're some files:

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai - Guccifer 2.0

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: So, first of all, what can you tell me about yourself? Who are you?

Guccifer 2.0 to Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai: i'm a hacker, manager, philosopher, women lover. I also like Gucci! I bring the light to people. I'm a freedom fighter! So u can choose what u like!

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: And where are you from?

Guccifer 2.0 to Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai: From Romania.

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: Do you work with Russia or the Russian government?

Guccifer 2.0 to Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai: No because I don't like Russians and their foreign policy. I hate being attributed to Russia.

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: Why?

Guccifer 2.0 to Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai: I've already told! Also I made a big deal, why you glorify them?

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: Tell me about the DNC hack. How did you get in?

Guccifer 2.0 to Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai: I hacked that server through the NGP VAN soft, if u understand what I'm talking about.

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: So that was your entry point, what happened next?

Guccifer 2.0 to Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai: I used 0-day exploit of NGP VAN soft then I installed shell-code into the DNC server. it allowed me to intrude into DNC network. They have Windows-based domain architecture. then I installed my Trojans on several PCs. I had to go from one PC to another every week so CrowdStrike couldn't catch me for a long time. I know that they have cool intrusion detection system. But my heuristic algorithms are better.

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: When did you first hack them?

Guccifer 2.0 to Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai: Last summer.

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: And when did you get kicked out?

Guccifer 2.0 to Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai: June 12, when they rebooted their system.

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: And why did you hack the DNC in the first place?

Guccifer 2.0 to Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai: DNC isn't my first deal.

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: Who else have you hacked?

Guccifer 2.0: Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai Follow my blog and u'll know! I can't tell u now about all my deals. My safety depends on it.

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: OK, I understand. But why did u target DNC? why are you interested in them?

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: Lazar began this deal and I follow him! I think we must fight for freedom of minds, fight for the world without Illuminati

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: Lazar?

Guccifer 2.0 to Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai: Marcel Lazăr [The original Guccifer]

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: Ah yeah of course. Did you know him personally?

Guccifer 2.0 to Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai: I can't answer cause I care for Marcel.

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: Ai vrea să vorbească în română pentru un pic? [You want to talk for a bit in Romanian?]

Guccifer 2.0 to Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai: Vorbiți limbă română? [Speak Romanian?]

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: Putin. Poți să-mi spui despre hack în română? cum ai făcut-o? [A little. Can you tell me about hack in Romanian? How did you do it?]

Guccifer 2.0 to Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai: Or u just use Google translate?

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: Poți să răspunzi la întrebarea mea? [Can you answer my question?]

Guccifer 2.0 to Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai: V-am spus deja. încercați să-mi verifica? [I have already said. try to check?]

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: Da [Yes]

Guccifer 2.0 to Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai: Nu vreau să-mi pierd timpul [I do not want to waste my time]

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: De ce ai pus metadate rusă în primul lot de documente? [Why did you put Russian metadata in the first batch of documents?]

Guccifer 2.0 to Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai: Este filigranul meu [It is my watermark]

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: De ce nu l-ai pus pe documentele de azi? [Why didn't you put it in the documents today?]

Guccifer 2.0 to Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai: Puteți găsi de asemenea alte filigrane în limbă spaniolă. Caută mai bine. [You can also find other watermarks in Spanish. Look better]

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: Sunt confuz de ceea ce spui, filigran, pentru că este mereu în schimbare. Pot să vă rog să-mi explicați în propria ta limbă maternă? Așa că este mult mai clar. [I'm confused by what you say, why is watermark changing? Can you please explain to me in your own language? So it is more clear.]

Guccifer 2.0 to Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai: Oare nu știți ce este filigran? [You do not know what watermark?]

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: Eu fac. Dar eu nu înțeleg de ce ai folosit filigrane rusești în unele Docs și nu în altele [I do. But I do not understand why you use watermarks in Russian in some documents and not in others?]

Guccifer 2.0 to Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai: Îți voi arăta [I will show you]

Lorenzo Franceschi-Bicchierai to Guccifer 2.0: Please do.

Want to know more about Guccifer 2.0?

Hi all!

I see many people wanna know a little more about me and ask a lot of questions.

And I'm ready to tell you what you're interested in if it doesn't threaten my safety.

Unfortunately I can't give personal answers to everybody.

That's why I'd like journalists to send me their questions via Twitter Direct Messages.

I'll post the most popular questions and my answers in this blog so that everybody can read them in original and doesn't distort my words as some journalists try to do.

So I'm eager to see your questions and will be glad to give my responses.

My Twitter account @GUCCIFER_2

WikiLeaks - Guccifer 2.0

WikiLeaks: "Do you have secure communications? Send any new material here for us to review and it will have a much higher impact than what you are doing. No other media will release the full material."

Guccifer 2.0: "what can u suggest for a secure connection? Soft, keys, etc? I'm ready to cooperate with you, but I need to know what's in your archive 80gb? Are there only HRC emails? Or some other docs? Are there any DNC docs? If it's not secret when you are going to release it?"

WikiLeaks: "You can send us a message in a .txt file here" with a web link

Guccifer 2.0: "do you have GPG?"

Charlie Grapski - Guccifer 2.0

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: Were you able to get any DNC personnel emails. I ask because in those could be a GOLDMINE of information. But I know that would be different than obtaining files.

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: Minor details in emails of low level DNC staff - can often be the MOST REVEALING - when putting the pieces together. They are the least careful - and many things "slip" through that would not do so with a more "sophisticated" operative.

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: So - for example - Eryn Sepp or Jeremy Brinster emails could be quite useful.

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: One of my PRIMARY interests (outside of the "normal" interests) is in the DNC's understanding that it was violating its own rules and Charter. Rules that PROHIBITED - what you see clearly in the documents you have released thus far (but was clear from the start was happening) - them from having ANY role in ANY candidate's campaign ... much less "being" the Clinton campaign all along. And ONLY the Clinton campaign.

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: If anything will bring "down" those responsible for all this - including Clinton herself - I believe it will THESE documents.

As government and judicial officials - will likely turn a blind eye to the legal violations themselves. But in the "court of public opinion" - demonstrating just how the "fix was in" from the start - for any candidate OTHER than Hillary - I think will be devastating.

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: Thus instructions to or reports from Sepp or Brinster MAY show just how this transpired (Both being connected PRIMARILY with Clinton - and only after with the DNC).

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: ALSO:

Were you able to obtain any DNC PAYROLL (internal) documents. This would be very interesting to see.

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: Here are two more "journalist" (as opposed to analysis of the content) questions:

1) Was it difficult having all of this and knowing that they revealed blatant misinformation by the candidate, campaign and party - and not releasing any of them earlier?

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: 2) Or did you provide - prior to the recent statement that they have a large set - some particular emails, etc, to Wikileaks prior to your being shut out with the reboot on the 12th?

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: 3) What were your plans, in terms of releasing these documents, had you not been discovered and shut out with the June 12th email. Was there a particular date or time you were anticipating, originally, releasing the documents?

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: Getting back to the ORIGINAL theme of my questions - on the lower level staffers, you stated in the one interview you did that was published ... that you operated by moving from computer to computer - so as not to be discovered.

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: Did you know (do you know) WHO those computers were assigned to?

For example, again, were you able to access a computer used primarily or exclusively by Eryn Sepp or Jeremy Brinster (or other staffer)?

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: And if so - are you able to produce (or willing) - either the documents BY computer (or a listing - of what documents came from what computer).

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: I ask this - because in getting the full potential value out of the many documents, this could be quite informative and revealing. In terms of piecing together HOW the DNC was operating. Again - one of MY particular areas of focus and interest - that will not be the primary interest of either the general public or most journalists. I have a different set of questions and concerns to explore than the "average" researcher.

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: Oh - on that - while I DO engage in "Citizen Journalism" - I am NOT a journalist by profession, but a legal and political theorist, and a political scientist. My area of expertise and interest is in the theory and practice of democracy. Related to that is the history and role of political parties - and the problems of party politics for democratic government and governance.

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: But I am not a mere academic. As any google search of my name will show. I am an "activist" Citizen - concerned with justice and the common/public good - and directly challenging corruption in American government.

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: And I have paid a very high price for my research, publications and in particular for my "activism."

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: I have been jailed, beaten, tortured ... even given (forcefully) an overdose of Baclofen while held in a jail infirmary in Florida - leading to my near death and several days in a coma.

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: I thought it might help you in answering my questions (which I hope you will have the chance to do) - if you knew and understood something about both my background and the nature of my interests in the work you have done and the information you have provided.

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: As for my "Citizen Journalism" - you can find much of it on Photograph is Not a Crime (where I am also the Director of the Open Records Project - which I began many years ago and a few years ago merged into PINAC) and OpEdNews. You can also find some work on DailyKos and FireDogLake - but I no longer publish anything on either site.

Guccifer 2.0 to Charlie Grapski: thanks for your questions

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: You are more than welcome. Thanks for the great work and service to ending corruption.

Guccifer 2.0 - WikiLeaks

Guccifer 2.0: How can we chat? Do u have jabber or something like that?

WikiLeaks to Guccifer 2.0: Yes, we have everything.

WikiLeaks to Guccifer 2.0: We've been busy celebrating Brexit.

WikiLeaks to Guccifer 2.0: You can also email an encrypted message to office@wikileaks.org.

WikiLeaks to Guccifer 2.0: They [sic] key is here. [web link attached]

Cassandra Fairbanks - Guccifer 2.0

Cassandra Fairbanks to Guccifer 2.0: [What do you think the most damning contents of the release are?]

Guccifer 2.0 to Cassandra Fairbanks: Wow, u look very enticing!!! I believe what's really shocking is a collusion between hillary, dnc, & media, what's ur opinion?

Cassandra Fairbanks to Guccifer 2.0: [The leaks lead to a class action lawsuit against the DNC over efforts to undermine Sanders' campaign. I'm in contact with the law firm and thinking of joining it.]

Guccifer 2.0 to Cassandra Fairbanks: Do you believe ur action will be successful? Can u tell me about ur initiative in details?

Cassandra Fairbanks to Guccifer 2.0: [Sends information sent to her by the law firm via email] On June 15, 2016, an anonymous hacker known as Guccifer 2.0 released documents purportedly hacked from the servers of the Democratic National Committee (DNC), the formal governing body of the Democratic Party, and the coordinator of the 2016 Democratic Presidential primary race. The hacked documents strongly suggest that the DNC colluded with Sec. Hillary Clinton's campaign to perpetrate a great fraud on the public.

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: IF you have another installment ready (other than waiting for WikiLeaks - which I recognize has a particular strategy (not sure what yet)):

TODAY would be a very good day for it - to keep the momentum against Clinton by Sanders supporters going.

Guccifer 2.0 to Cassandra Fairbanks: oh, great!!! do u think the docs i published will be enough to win the case? or do u need some more docs?

Cassandra Fairbanks to Guccifer 2.0: They seem to have enough to think they have a good shot at winning. This is the law firm beckandlee.com

Guccifer 2.0 to Cassandra Fairbanks: can it influence the convention anyhow?

Cassandra Fairbanks to Guccifer 2.0: i hope so

Cassandra Fairbanks to Guccifer 2.0: I assume youre outside of the US?

Guccifer 2.0 to Cassandra Fairbanks: God knows, i prefer not to disclose my personal info. it's dangerous

Cassandra Fairbanks to Guccifer 2.0: yeah, good call. im sure the dnc is searching for you harder than law enforcement even is

Guccifer 2.0 to Cassandra Fairbanks: yep, maybe

Guccifer 2.0 to Cassandra Fairbanks: do u happen to know what court will consider the case?

Cassandra Fairbanks to Guccifer 2.0: im not sure, but the lawfirm is in florida.

Cassandra Fairbanks to Guccifer 2.0: Could I interview you sometime? I write for we are change, and Sputnik news, would happily do it for either one

Guccifer 2.0 to Cassandra Fairbanks: i can help if u send me a copy

Guccifer 2.0 to Cassandra Fairbanks: i mean the paperwork

Guccifer 2.0 to Cassandra Fairbanks: [Provides a private email address]

Cassandra Fairbanks to Guccifer 2.0: [Forwards the lawfirms PR email]

Cassandra Fairbanks to Guccifer 2.0: [Do you think there's anything you dumped that people are overlooking?]

Guccifer 2.0 to Cassandra Fairbanks: frankly, it's impossible for me to look through all docs

Guccifer 2.0 to Cassandra Fairbanks: it takes lots of time

Guccifer 2.0 to Cassandra Fairbanks: maybe i'll have a team in the future to help sort docs :-)

Cassandra Fairbanks to Guccifer 2.0: yeah ive been trying to go through them, but its a process

Guccifer 2.0 to Cassandra Fairbanks: yep

Guccifer 2.0 to The Smoking Gun: Hi there, I can give you an exclusive access to some leaked emails linked Hillary Clinton's staff as I see them. Are you interested?

The Smoking Gun to Guccifer 2.0: Sure. Are these DNC e-mails exchanged with HRC's staff?

Guccifer 2.0 to The Smoking Gun: That's something new. Specially for you. This's the inside for you. This's a part of the big archive that includes Hillary Clinton's staff correspondence. I asked the DCleaks, the Wikileaks sub project, to release a part with a closed access. I can send you a link and a pass. You'll have a couple of days to study themails until it becomes available for public access. But DCleaks asked me not to make any announcements yet. So I ask you not to make links to my blog. Ok?

FAQ from Guccifer 2.0

Hello! I received lots of questions from journalists and other people who are interested in my doings. Many thanks to all of you, it's a pleasure for me!

Unfortunately, I couldn't reply to each of you personally, especially given that you often asked the same questions. That's why I decided to answer the most frequently asked questions here.

I divided them into three groups:

1. About me
2. About my activities and publications
3. About my political views

As you can guess, all special services are doing their best trying to locate and catch me. And I have absolutely no desire to help them. So, if your curiosity isn't satisfied after reading this post, you may have my apologies. It's a matter of life and death. But I can assure you that everything I do corresponds to my beliefs.

Let's get it started!

1. A glimpse of me

Many people ask me where I'm from, where I live and other personal information.

You see, I can't show you my IDs, it would be stupid of me.

I can only tell you that I was born in Eastern Europe. I won't answer where I am now. In fact, it's better for me to change my location as often as possible. I have to hide.

But generally, it's not that important for where I live. I can work wherever there's an Internet connection. So I feel free in any free country.

A lot of people are concerned if I have any links to special services and Russia?

I'll tell you that everything I do I do at my own risk. This is my personal project and I'm proud of it. Yes, I risk my life. But I know it's worth it. No one knew about me several weeks ago. Nowadays the whole world's talking about me. It's really cool!

How can I prove this is true? I really don't know. It seems the guys from CrowdStrike and the DNC would say I'm a Russian bear even if I were a catholic nun in fact. At first I was annoyed and disappointed. But now I realize they have nothing else to say. There's no other way to justify their incompetence and failure. It's much easier for them to accuse powerful foreign special services.

They just fucked up! They can prove nothing! All I hear is blah-blah-blah, unfounded theories and somebody's estimates.

Specialists from Eastern Europe, Russia, China, India work for the leading IT-companies such as Google, IBM, Microsoft, Apple. There's no surprise that many hackers are descendants from these regions.

Almost all recent famous hacker attacks have been attributed to Russia. The researchers supposed that the same instruments were implemented during the attacks. But I'd like to reveal a secret to all those cool IT-specialists: all the hackers in the world use almost the same tools. You can buy them or simply find on the web.

And btw, it was the Russian company Kaspersky Lab that was the first to start a myth about the almighty Russian hackers. It's a fucking awesome advertisement. They mean that only the Russian antivirus company is able to cope with Russian hackers! Bingo!

I'm often asked if I'm afraid of being prosecuted by the FBI. My answer is No! I've expected it and that's why I'm ready. They certainly have great possibilities. But it won't be that easy to catch me. I took all precautions. Yes, there's still a risk. But I hope they won't find me.

You asked me several times if I'm a man or a woman. I'm a man. I've never met a female hacker of the highest level. Girls, don't get offended, I love you.

2. About my activities and publications.

How do you estimate your hacking abilities? How much time does it take to acquire such skills?

Well... Actually, it's up to you to estimate the one who is so widely spoken about. Personally I think that I'm among the best hackers in the world. And I don't really think it could be easy to become a hacker of such a level. You can spend much time reading and learning but there's absolutely no guarantee you'll ever reach the top. You should be chosen, talented or something like that, I don't know.

Who inspires me? Not the guys like Rambo or Terminator or any other like them. The world has changed. Assange, Snowden, and Manning are the heroes of the computer age. They struggle for truth and justice; they struggle to make our world better, more honest and clear. People like them make us hope for tomorrow. They are the modern heroes, they make history right now.

Marcel Lazar is another hero of mine. He inspired me and showed me the way. He proved that even the powers that be have weak points.

Anyway it seems that IT-companies and special services can't realize that people like me act just following their ideas but not for money. They missed the bus with Assange and Snowden, they are not ready to live in the modern world. They are not ready to meet people who are smart and brave, who are eager to fight for their ideals, who can sacrifice themselves for the better future. Working for a boss makes them slow I suppose.

Who among Romanian hackers do you know? How sophisticated are the hackers from Moldova?

I know a couple of hackers from Romania who impressed me. Anyway, I'm not gonna call them by name. I mentioned Marcel because he is already widely known. We try not to disclose each other; this is a matter of our security.

As for Moldova, I think it's a part of Romania, so there's no reason to speak about it separately. So, there are also Romanian hackers there.

Other popular questions are why I broke into the DNC servers and if it was my first hack.

Obviously, it wasn't my first hack. But I made some conclusions from the Marcel's story and decided not to put all eggs in one basket. Moreover, other cases weren't so successful and didn't bring me the glory.

As for the DNC, first, the U.S. election race is one of the most exciting events that attracts people from all over the world. My hack wouldn't go unnoticed in any case. And now I have my own fans who put me in a line with Assange and Snowden, so my bet has played I think.

Second, the chain is no stronger than its weaker link. Marcel showed where the weak points could be and I found them.

Why did it take me so long to publish the documents? Well, it was pretty interesting to wait until I was discovered. Really, it took them much longer than I expected. It was like playing hide-and-seek; I had to pass from one machine to another inside the network to stay stealth. It was breathtaking! And of course I was waiting for an appropriate moment to speak loud.

How did you break into the DNC network? And are you still in?

These questions are also very popular. I've already said about the software vulnerabilities. The DNC had NGP VAN software installed on their system so I used the 0-day exploit and then deployed my backdoor. The DNC used Windows on their server, so it made my work much easier. I installed my Trojan like virus on their PCs. I just modified the platform that I bought on the hacking forums for about $1.5k.

I've been inside the network for pretty long time, so I downloaded a lot of files. I lost access after they rebooted the system on June 12. But after all, if they'll carry on like this it won't be a problem to get in again and again.

Is it easy to find a 0-day vulnerability?

It seems hard at first glance, but for a really good specialist armed with good skills in fuzzing, the IDA Pro disassembler, and the WinDbg debugger it's just a matter of time.

3. About my political views

There were lots of questions about my personal opinion on the U.S. politics and presidential candidates.

I don't want to disappoint anyone, but none of the candidates has my sympathies. Each of them has skeletons in the closet and I think people have a right to know the truth about the politicians.

As for me, I see great differences between Hillary Clinton and Donald Trump. Hillary seems so much false to me, she got all her money from political activities and lobbying, she is a slave of moguls, she is bought and sold. She never had to work hard and never risked everything she had. Her words don't meet her actions. And her collusion with the DNC turned the primaries into farce.

Opposite to her, Donald Trump has earned his money himself. And at least he is sincere in what he says. His position is straight and clear.

Anyway that doesn't mean that I support him. I'm totally against his ideas about closing borders and deportation policy. It's a nonsense, absolute bullshit.

I have nothing to say about Bernie Sanders. It seems he never had a chance to win the nomination as the Democratic Party itself stood against him!

I beg your pardon if some of your questions didn't get answers. I've chosen the most popular inquiries and those ones which don't affect my security. You are always welcome to write me DMs, maybe I'll make an UPD or post a new interview later.

And from me to you, here are some more interesting files from the DNC.

Hi all,

It's been a little while since we've sent one of these, but given the attacks on the Clinton Foundation as of late, we wanted to send around some points in hopes that you will join us in defending the good work the Foundation does and will continue to do.

Below are some points that we hope you can hit when talking to reporters, are on air, or even just with friends and people in your communities. As you've probably seen reading the stories in the last couple of weeks, there has been little mention of the good work the Foundation does, and that it is without a doubt a world-class philanthropy.

Along those lines, we encourage you to visit the Clinton Foundation website to learn more about the work, and have included some specific links you may be interested in. As you may know, last week President Clinton completed a trip to Haiti to see the economic progress there, and this week President, Secretary and Chelsea Clinton will convene the 8th Clinton Global Initiative University in Miami.

Additionally, we're looking forward to two major events for No Ceilings: The Full Participation Project. On March 9, Secretary Clinton and Chelsea, together with Melinda Gates, will roll out our progress report in written form as well as in a series of data visualizations on noceilings.org to show the progress that women and girls have made around the world and the gaps that still remain since the U.N. Fourth World Conference on Women in Beijing in 1995, when Secretary Clinton called on the international community to ensure that "women's rights are human rights." This is the culmination of over a year's collaboration among the Clinton Foundation, the Gates Foundation, The Economist Intelligence Unit, the WORLD Policy Analysis Center at UCLA, and Fathom Information Design. On March 10, Secretary Clinton will speak at the United Nations to articulate her vision to reach full participation for women and girls in the 21st century.

Clinton Foundation Highlights:

Foreign Donations & FPOTUS Foundations

Foreign Governments' Donations To Presidential Libraries/Foundations

OVERVIEW

- There is nothing new or unusual about presidential libraries and foundations receiving contributions from foreign governments. And there is significant overlap between those that have given to the Clinton Library and other presidential libraries.
- The libraries of Former Presidents George H.W. Bush, Carter and Reagan all took money from foreign governments and Former Presidents Carter and Bush continue to take money from foreign governments to fund their charitable work.
- In fact, Former President George H.W. Bush received at least a million dollars from the Embassy of Qatar in 2004 while his son was president.

BUSH 41

The following all contributed $1 million or more to the library:

- The people of Kuwait and the Kuwaiti Foundation for the Advancement of Sciences;
- Japan;
- Oman;
- Sheik Zayed bin Sultan al-Nahayan, President of UAE and the "people of the emirates;"
- The Family of Bandar bin Sultan (Saudi). [AP, 2/23/06; Arkansas Democrat-Gazette, 5/15/05; Christian Science Monitor, 11/7/97; New York Times, 11/7/97; Washington Post, 2/15/07]

Other nations that gave:

- King Hassan II of Morocco,
- The Amir of Qatar,
- The Former Prime Minister of Korea,
- The People's Republic of China. [AP, 2/23/06; Arkansas Democrat-Gazette, 5/15/05; Christian Science Monitor, 11/7/97; New York Times, 11/7/97; Washington Post, 2/15/07]

Protecting Voters, Protecting the Vote

~~When Luz Magallanes, a Maricopa County school teacher, arrived at her polling place to vote in the Arizona primary before work last month, she hoped to share her voting story with the children in her classroom later that day. But looking at the long lines that had already formed~~
The reason the Democratic National Committee resorted to filing a lawsuit against Arizona this month is,
~~she decided to go to work and vote in the evening instead. When she returned, she had to wait in line for nearly five hours before finally casting her ballot.~~

~~When Leslie Feldman arrived at her polling location with her two young daughters, she didn't expect an ordeal. In the course of waiting for nearly five hours, she found the voting center's one working bathroom was overwhelmed and leaking raw sewage onto the sidewalk. When she finally reached the front of the voting line, she was told they had run out of Democratic ballots. And when new ballots finally arrived and she cast her vote, she passed hundreds of people still waiting in line on her way home.~~

~~These are the stories of just two of the thousands of Arizona residents forced to wait in unacceptably long lines to cast their votes in last month's primary after the state closed 70 percent of their polling locations, citing "cost cutting" as the reason.~~

~~These are the stories that prompted those of us at the Democratic National Committee to file a lawsuit last week in the U.S. District Court of Arizona against the state officials responsible. We are joined in the suit by the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee, Kirkpatrick for Senate, the Arizona Democratic Party, and eight individual voters, including Ms. Magallanes and Ms. Feldman.~~

~~The reason we're resorting to a lawsuit is simple: the right to vote is sacred, and it is under attack in Arizona – a state with a particularly poor record of discrimination and disenfranchisement in minority communities. It's certainly no accident that so many of the problems on primary day occurred in Maricopa County, which is home to a large minority population.~~

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: I've seen reports (i.e. Smoking Gun) that your latest dump has some of the low level staff emails.

I am not sure which file they are getting these from.

Are they on the latest list of documents from yesterday on WP?

Charlie Grapski - Guccifer 2.0

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: QUESTION: As you recall I specifically was interested in "low-level staff" emails.

I saw the story on "The Smoking Gun" - which was confusing because of their reference to emails I cannot find on your latest release.

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: Could you address whether you have released such emails - but only directly to particular outlets or individuals?

And if that thus required them not to publish the actual source documents for the story - of if they simply chose not to do so.

Guccifer 2.0 - Kevin Collier

Guccifer 2.0: hi, first of all, happy independence day!!!

Guccifer 2.0: i have 2 docs for u

Guccifer 2.0: i'll send u a gpg key to kcollier@vocativ.com

Guccifer 2.0: u send me urs

Kevin Collier: thanks! send it to me at [email address redacted]

Kevin Collier: key: <http://www.kevinacollier.com/pgp>

Guccifer 2.0: i sent u docs, check ur mailbox

Guccifer 2.0: do u find them worth writing about?

Kevin Collier: Thanks! Lemme look through and talk about with my editor, but they certainly might be.

Guccifer 2.0: ok

Kevin Collier: Btw, i'm curious: how many more docs are there that no one has seen?

Kevin Collier: Hey I wanna ask you a little more about this doc btw

Kevin Collier: if you can talk about it

Guccifer 2.0 - The Smoking Gun

Guccifer 2.0 to The Smoking Gun: happy independence day! [Two DNC documents attached]

Guccifer 2.0 - Flipper4Trump

Guccifer 2.0 to Flipper4Trump: yep, happy independence day

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: Yeah. I love when you write back. I got some Intel for you.
[picture of "A guide to Hillary Clinton information video clips"]

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: We are trying to help Bernie pp too. Above was posted by this very nice Bernie person. I have gotten word out to some higher ups that some HRC thugs are planning w some corrupt philly PD to give two taps to back of head to Bernie pp /via democracy springs civil disobedience at DNC convention.

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: It's not a joke. They can kill someone and /or trigger a seizure. I may be for Trump but I'm all about protecting pp. ESP MILLENIALS. Let me know if you are interested in some stuff I collected RE HRC thugs. 5% create 95% of problems. And one used to work w Philly PD. And old contacts go back to mayor Rizzo days. I'm from BKLYN. Live in pa. But I know all about mayor Rizzo bombing the blacks in their houses. When squatting. Sick pp

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: Sorry to blow up DM. Unity only way we all survive

Guccifer 2.0 to Flipper4Trump: who are u talking about?

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: I know I just presume u are so smart that you can read my mind. Lol. Ok. I'm for trump. But I care about pp. Bernie got shafted. His people: democracy springs : are planning civil disobedience and practiced hassle lines. Etc. ESP for DNC convention. Well that convention is 18 min from my house. And I Twitter surf and found a slew of HRC pp who are colluding against the Bernie pp. They have a few philly PD cops on their side. One of the thugs used to be a Philly PD officer. Have the Twitter names. Printed the stuff out. Told a few cops. But they have connections with philly PD who were under MAYOR RIZZO A VERY RACIST COP. I'm originally from BKLYN. But live here now. I even know about mayor Rizzo beating blacks w police brutality. The biggest scandal was bombing a block in west philly that killed many African American men women and children.

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: So I have tweets that have HRC pp laughing “ Bernie brothers and their hassle lines gonna get their asses beat like he did “. Another “ Philly PD on it. Trust “. “ philly PD good at 2 taps to the back fo the head leaving no Mark “. I may be for trump but over my dead body am I ok with pp acting like animals and hurting Bernie pp. does that make sense. Don’t want to blow up your DM. Think I have pics on my phone of the tweets.

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: My allergies and this election have made my head spin. I only voted once and I’m 44. White Jewish social worker from BKLYN. Been too busy fighting institutional racis. And the new Jlm Crow where I live. My motto educate don’t incarcerate. I have my own NYC lingo that doesn’t always translate.

Guccifer 2.0 to Flipper4Trump: do u have any evidence, docs, photos? Or u may know some facts msm didn’t talk about?

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: Yes. Have my kid with me now. Will send in an hour. Been making binders.

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: [Sends a picture of a screen showing tweets unrelated to HRC discussing the MOVE bombing]

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: Not gonna blow up your DM. But here is a bit

Guccifer 2.0 - Charlie Grapski

Guccifer 2.0 to Charlie Grapsi: hi charlie, so many question from u i almost got confused

Guccifer 2.0 to Charlie Grapsi: i have a lot docs unpublished yet, i don't even have time enough to sort them and do just simple analyses

Guccifer 2.0 to Charlie Grapsi: so i'm looking for people who can help me to look through the docs and write about them in the press

Guccifer 2.0 to Charlie Grapsi: r u interested?

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: Yes I am

Guccifer 2.0 to Charlie Grapski: sent [sic] me ur mail

Flipper4Trump - Guccifer 2.0

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: [unknown amount of text cut off] me to blow up your DM. But I want those Bernie pp safe. It's a sad day when a Trumper more concerned about safety for Bernie pp than their own party. Give me five min. And will send pics. Sorry im so worry. But I am a bit frazzled about pp dying.

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: Ok here goes. I will block out my name and email address so I don't end up on Clinton hit list. If u need it in the future will give to you and you alone. Needed to make extra copies to give to police and some other pp. It means a lot to pre empt any deaths or injuries. Consider this Tishas first dump to u. Have more to print out tomorrow.

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: First batch : democracy springs. Bernie pp. Give them credit for fighting for their candidate. Much respect.

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: [picture of a tweet from @DemSpring about taking "150 more trained activists" to DNC in Philly] 1) Bernie pp : democracy springs Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: 2) they are practicing hassle lines and getting arrested as part of civil disobedience since Bernie got shafted. But I believe in their actions. But there will be a blood bath here in pa Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: [picture of a tweet from @QuixoticMcgee about "protest training"] 3) democracy springs reasons.

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: Then there is a truly innocent Bernie person must find page that is trusting philly pd will keep her safe. Now for the backlash from HRC thugs. Sorry to burden you with this.

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: Bear with me. Reception sucks here

Trumpocalypse and other DNC plans for July

I have a new bunch of docs from the DNC server for you.

It includes the DNC action plan during the Republican National Convention, Surrogate Report, POTUS briefing, financial reports, etc.

This pack was announced two days ago but I had to keep you waiting for some security reasons. I suffered two attacks on my wp account.

You might be aware of the rumors about Marcel Lazar aka Guccifer. Those are a.c. fake stories, but who knows. Please keep me updated if there is any news.

Counter Convention Plan Sketch

Overview

The Republican National Convention will take place in Cleveland, Ohio from Monday, July 18 through Thursday, July 21, 2016. Our operation will consist of a campaign on the ground in Cleveland, from Headquarters, and in battleground and other states to amplify a message that sets the record straight on what viewers will see at the convention.

The plan begins with setting the tone in Cleveland before the convention kicks off with activities previewing the most likely and most outrageous falsehoods we expect to hear at the RNC.

We will deploy a core team to Cleveland to establish a fixed location for daily press conferences, as well as a mobile rapid response hub for special events. A rotating cast of senior party leaders and officials will participate each day in our events, and we will pair party leaders and elected officials with real people whose stories reflect what's at stake in the coming election.

We will also lay the groundwork with state parties to hold events that include notable officials and real people in their key markets to echo our message and set themes of the day. We will integrate these activities into a social media campaign to deliver content about everything we're doing to as large an audience as possible.

We also intend to produce advertising for Cleveland and key markets to coincide with specific themes each day, which will include both radio and online advertising.

DNC WASHINGTON DC DISCUSSION

DATE: Wednesday, May 18th, 2016
LOCATION: The Jefferson Hotel
1200 16th Street NW
Washington, DC 20036
TIME: 3:40 PM – 4:40 PM
FROM: Alexandra Shapiro, DNC Mid-Atlantic Finance Director

I. PURPOSE:

YOU will participate in a 31-person off-the-record discussion at the Jefferson Hotel to benefit the Democratic National Committee. Attendees are mostly longtime supporters of the DNC and the Obama-Biden campaigns from the Mid-Atlantic area. They are interested in a conversation focused on business and economic concerns but many are also committed to education and social issues.

Prior to YOUR arrival, David Simas will deliver informal remarks to guests. Upon arrival, YOU will be greeted by Sreedhar Potarazu outside the Gallatin room. YOU will then proceed to the discussion room and move around the table to greet guests. YOU will then move to your seat. YOU will make brief, informal remarks and take questions from the attendees. Staff will indicate when there is time enough for a final question. YOU will then move around the table, say goodbye to guests, and depart.

II. PARTICIPANTS:

- YOU
- Stephen Bittel, Finance Vice Chair, Democratic National Committee
- Henry R. Munoz III, Finance Chair, Democratic National Committee
- Sreedhar Potarazu, Greeter
- David Simas, Assistant to the President and Director of the Office of Political Strategy and Outreach
- U.S. Rep. Debbie Wasserman Schultz, Chair, Democratic National Committee
- 27 additional guests

2016 DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA | JULY 25-28

Democratic National Convention Committee Announces Platform Drafting Committee Members

Members Represent Diversity of Party including Significant Appointments from Both Campaigns

PHILADELPHIA – Democratic National Convention Committee (DNCC) Chairwoman Debbie Wasserman-Schultz announced the appointment of the 15-person Platform Drafting Committee. The Drafting Committee is responsible for developing and managing the process through which the Democratic Party's National Platform is established.

appointed

According to DNC rules, the members of the drafting committee are awarded at the discretion of the DNC Chair. This year, in an effort to include every voice in the process, the DNC Chair consulted with both presidential campaign and offered them 75% of the seats proportionally (according to the state vote) to each of those campaigns.

Chairwoman Wasserman-Schultz also named Congressman Elijah Cummings (D-MD) as Chair of the drafting committee.

"We are delighted to bring together this talented group of Democrats," said DNC Chairwoman Debbie Wasserman Schultz. "These individuals represent some of the best thinking from across the nation. I am confident that the members of this committee will engage Americans in a substantive dialogue of ideas and solutions that will inform our Party Platform."

"The Democratic Party has always fought to create a better life for all Americans," said Representative Cummings. "I am pleased that we have some of our best and brightest gathered here to assemble our collective vision of our nation's future. We will be going to unprecedented lengths to ensure that the drafting of our party's platform is the most inclusive, open and representative process in the long history of our two major parties."

Guccifer 2.0 - WikiLeaks

Guccifer 2.0: "have u received my parcel?"

WikiLeaks: "Not unless it was very recent. [we haven't checked in 24h]."

Guccifer 2.0: "I sent it yesterday, an archive of about 1 gb. via [website link]. and check your email."

WikiLeaks: "Wil check, thanks."

Guccifer 2.0: "let me know the results."

WikiLeaks: "Please don't make anything you send to us public. It's a lot of work to go through it and the impact is severely reduced if we are not the first to publish."

Guccifer 2.0: "agreed. How much time will it take?"

WikiLeaks: "likely sometime today."

Guccifer 2.0: "will u announce a publication? and what about 3 docs [I] sent u earlier?"

WikiLeaks: "I don't believe we received them. Nothing on 'Brexit' for example"

Guccifer 2.0: "wow. have you checked ur mail?"

WikiLeaks: "At least not as of 4 days ago. . . . For security reasons mail cannot be checked for some hours."

Guccifer 2.0: "fuck, [I] sent 4 docs on brexit on jun 29, an archive in gpg[.] ur submission form is too fucking slow, [I] spent the whole day uploading 1 gb"

WikiLeaks: "We can arrange servers 100x as fast. The speed restrictions are to anonymise the path. Just ask for custom fast upload point in an email."

Guccifer 2.0: "will u be able to check ur email?"

WikiLeaks: "We're best with very large data sets. e.g. 200gb. these prove themselves since they're too big to fake"

Guccifer 2.0: "or shall I send brexit docs via submission once again?"

WikiLeaks: "to be safe, send via [web link]."

Guccifer 2.0: "can u confirm u received dnc emails?"

WikiLeaks: "for security reasons we can't confirm what we've received here. e.g., in case your account has been taken over by us intelligence and is probing to see what we have"

Guccifer 2.0: "then send me an encrypted email."

WikiLeaks to Guccifer 2.0: "we can do that. but the security people are in another time zone so it will need to wait some hours."

WikiLeaks: "what do you think about the FBI's failure to charge? To our mind the clinton foundation investigation has always been the more serious. we would be very interested in all the emails/docs from there. She set up quite a lot of front companies. e.g in sweden."

Guccifer 2.0: "ok, i'll be waiting for confirmation. as for investigation, they have everything settled, or else I don't know how to explain that they found a hundred classified docs but fail to charge her."

WikiLeaks: "She's too powerful to charge at least without something stronger. as far as we know, the investigation into the clinton foundation remains open we hear the FBI are unhappy with Loretta Lynch over meeting Bill, because he's a target in that investigation."

Guccifer 2.0: "do you have any info about marcel lazar? There've been a lot of rumors of late."

WikiLeaks: "the death? a fake story. His 2013 screen shots of Max Blumenthal's inbox prove that Hillary secretly deleted at least one email about Libya that was meant to be handed over to Congress. So we were very interested in his co operation with the FBI"

Guccifer 2.0: "some dirty games behind the scenes [I] believe[.] Can you send me an email now?"

WikiLeaks: "No; we have not been able to activate the people who handle it. Still trying."

Guccifer 2.0: "what about tor submission? will u receive a doc now?"

WikiLeaks: "We will get everything sent on[weblink]." as long as you see\ "upload succseful\ "at the end. if you have anything hillary related we want it in the next tweo [sic] days prefable [sic] because the DNC is approaching and she will solidify bernie supporters behind her after."

Guccifer 2.0: "ok . . . i see"

WikiLeaks: "[W]e think the public interest is greatest now and in early october."

Guccifer 2.0: "do u think a lot ofpeople will attend bernie fans rally in philly? Will it affect the dnc anyhow?"

WikiLeaks: "bernie is trying to make his own faction leading up to the DNC. [S]o he can push for concessions (positions/policies) or, at the outside, if hillary has a stroke, is arrested etc, he can take over the nomination. [T]he question is this: can bemies supporters+staff keep their coherency until then (and after). [O]r will they dis[s]olve into hillary's camp? [P]resently many of them are looking to damage hilary [sic] in order [sic] to increase their unity and bargaining power at the DNC. Doubt one rally is going to be that significant in the bigger scheme. [I]t seems many of them will vote for hillary just to prevent trump from winning"

Guccifer 2.0: "sent brexit docs successfully"

WikiLeaks: "(:)))"

WikiLeaks: "we think trump has only a 25% chance of winning against hillary . . . so conflict between bernie and hillary is interesting."

Guccifer 2.0: "so it is"

WikiLeaks: "also, it's important to consider what type ofpresident hillary might be. If bernie and trump retain their groups past 2016 in significant number, then they are a restraining force on hillary."

Guccifer 2.0 - Kevin Collier

Guccifer 2.0: hi, i'm here

Guccifer 2.0: i have roughly some hundreds of docs or so

Guccifer 2.0: what r ur questions?

Kevin Collier: I'm curious what you think of the doc you sent me about the TV station, or why you chose to send me that one.

Guccifer 2.0: i find it interesting

Kevin Collier: What about it is interesting, though? I don't really see how it would be a story.

Guccifer 2.0: ok, what about another one?

Guccifer 2.0: i'm about to post both of them in my blog today

Guccifer 2.0 - Kevin Collier

Guccifer 2.0: hi, how's business?

Kevin Collier: good, how are you?

Guccifer 2.0: that's all right

Kevin Collier: what are your next plans, if you don't mind me asking?

Guccifer 2.0: what about the docs, it seems a lot of ppl found a lot of interesting things in the docs i'd sent u beforehand

Kevin Collier: yeah but you didn't send me the most interesting ones!

Kevin Collier: probably would have had stories out of some of the other ones you posted

Guccifer 2.0: really? what about dem plans for rnc?

WikiLeaks - Guccifer 2.0

WikiLeaks "All good?"

Guccifer 2.0: "yeah, what about u? is smth wrong?"

WikiLeaks: "No. All good."

Guccifer 2.0: "are working with the emails [I] sent u? [C]heck ur email. [I] sent u a check archive from another email box. fuck, mail undelivered. [D]o you have another way to receive large volumes of data? [B]esides for tor submission form?"

Guccifer 2.0: "sent it via ur submission. check it."

Dear Norman,

Thanks very much for the opportunity to visit with you last week. I enjoyed hearing your thoughts and concerns on the direction of the country.

Thank you for your commitment to contribute and raise $25,000 to become a part of my Speaker's Cabinet – our campaign to elect a Democratic Speaker of the House. I am personally grateful for your willingness to contribute $5,000 before March 31st.

With less than a year until Congressional elections, Democrats have gained momentum with a clear vision for progress and a national mood firmly united against the leadership of House Republicans. Democrats believe that together, America can do better.

Our efforts at the DCCC will be about winning elections by setting the right priorities for our nation and its future. House Democrats look forward to a battle of ideas with the Republicans that will engage and motivate voters across this great country.

I am honored by your friendship and support. With your help and our strong message, we will win the House for the American people. I hope to see you again soon.

Best regards,

Nancy Pelosi
House Democratic Leader

SARAH PALIN QUOTES

(as of 1/12/11)

Accused Critics of Blood Libel

In a January 2011 post reflecting on the Giffords shooting, Palin accused her critics of manufacturing “a blood libel”:

“If you don’t like their ideas, you’re free to propose better ideas. But, especially within hours of a tragedy unfolding, journalists and pundits should not manufacture a blood libel that serves only to incite the very hatred and violence they purport to condemn. That is reprehensible.” Sarah Palin on Facebook, [1/12/11]

... Which Typically Referred to Anti-Semitic Accusation that Jews Killed Children

According to The Hill:

“The term “blood libel” refers to historical, false accusations that Jews used the blood of non-Jewish children for religious purposes. Persecutors of the Jews employed a “blood libel” mentality to justify acts of violence against them.” [The Hill, 1/12/11]

Palin Was Well-Aware of Jewish Holidays

On her Facebook page, Palin often noted Jewish holidays:

- December 2010: “Happy Hanukkah”
 - September 2010: “Happy Rosh Hashanah”
 - March 2010: “Best Wishes for a Blessed Passover”
 - December 2009: “Happy Hannukah”
 - September 2009: “Best Wishes for the Jewish High Holidays”
- Sarah Palin on Facebook, [12/03/10, 9/08/10, 3/29/10, 12/15/09, 9/24/09]

Giffords Was Jewish

According to the New York Times, Congresswoman Giffords was the first Jewish congresswoman from Arizona. [New York Times, 1/09/11]

Complained that People Imagined Insults

In a January 2011 post reflecting on the Giffords shooting, Palin complained that people were imagining insults:

“And we will not be stopped from celebrating the greatness of our country and our foundational freedoms by those who mock its greatness by being intolerant of

Guccifer 2.0 - WikiLeaks

Guccifer 2.0 sends WikiLeaks an email with the subject “big archive”, the message “a new attempt” and the attachment “wk dnc link1.txt.gpg” with instructions on how to retrieve

Guccifer 2.0: “ping. Check ur email. sent u a link to a big archive and a pass.”

WikiLeaks: "great, thanks; can't check until tomorrow though."

Guccifer 2.0 - Kevin Collier

Guccifer 2.0: i've just posted a bunch

Kevin Collier: I saw them, very interesting

Kevin Collier: Just curious if that's the last of them

Guccifer 2.0: no, will be leaking in small parts so that u don't forget about me

Kevin Collier: I'm curious: have you hacked anywhere else?

Kevin Collier: Or are you in the middle of any more hacks right now?

Charlie Grapski - Guccifer 2.0

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: Still very interested.

WikiLeaks - Guccifer 2.0

WikiLeaks: "have the 1Gb or so archive"

Guccifer 2.0: "have u managed to extract the files?"

WikiLeaks: "yes. turkey coup has delayed us a couple of days. otherwise all ready"

Guccifer 2.0: "so when r u about to make a release?"

WikiLeaks: "this week. do you have any bigger datasets? did you get our fast transfer details?"

Guccifer 2.0: "i'll check it. did u send it via email?"

WikiLeaks: "yes."

Guccifer 2.0: "to [web link]. i got nothing"

WikiLeaks: "check your other mail? this was over a week ago."

Guccifer 2.0: "oh, that one, yeah, i got it."

WikiLeaks: "great. did it work?"

Guccifer 2.0: "i haven't tried yet."

WikiLeaks: "Oh. We arranged that server just for that purpose. Nothing bigger?"

Guccifer 2.0: "let's move step by step, u have released nothing of what i sent u yet."

WikiLeaks to Guccifer 2.0: "How about you transfer it all to us encrypted. then when you are happy, you give us the decrypt key. this way we can move much faster. also it is protective for you if we already have everything because then there is no point in trying to shut you up"

Guccifer 2.0: "ok, i'll ponder it."

Guccifer 2.0 - Kevin Collier

Guccifer 2.0: u may presume that i am. but i surely won't tell, sorry

Guccifer 2.0: that's not bc of u, i'll tell no1

Kevin Collier: A lot of people are curious who you are.

Guccifer 2.0: i know, and u don't even imagine how much i'm eager to post my photo and say this is me, look everybody, this is me, mom, look, this is me who the world's speaking about

Guccifer 2.0: but i can't

Guccifer 2.0: they'll bust me in a moment :(

Kevin Collier: Not like your actual identity; I know you have to keep that secret

Kevin Collier: But like what else you have done as a hacker

Kevin Collier: Because otherwise it kinda seems like you only want to get people to look through DNC documents.

Guccifer 2.0: i see, i made some conclusions after marcel had been arrested

Guccifer 2.0: he was indicted for his record of hacks,that's why i chose a new name for this hack

Guccifer 2.0: i don't want to disclose my previous activity

Kevin Collier: Are you really Romanian?

Guccifer 2.0: yeah, by birth

Guccifer 2.0: btw, is it for press or for u personally?

Guccifer 2.0: u made me speak a lot :)

Kevin Collier: I'm personally curious, but it's true, I am press

Kevin Collier: You've seen all these reports that think you're actually Russian, right?

Guccifer 2.0: yeah, of course

Kevin Collier: It makes it seem like you weren't telling the truth, and that maybe you have a political agenda besides just hacking to expose truth

Guccifer 2.0: i'm sick and tired of them

Guccifer 2.0: and sick and tired denying them

Guccifer 2.0: but how can i prove i'm not lying?

Guccifer 2.0: and what political agenda do u mean?

Kevin Collier: By political agenda, I mean hacking the US Democrats but nobody else can look like you're trying to make one US political party look bad

Guccifer 2.0: that's not this way, i don't make much difference between the parties, if by any chance i had managed to breach into the rnc be sure i wouldn't have hesitated to leak their docs

Kevin Collier: Are you excited that wikileaks published those emails?

Joe Uchill - Guccifer 2.0

Joe Uchill to Guccifer 2.0: Is the DNC email list you?

Joe Uchill to Guccifer 2.0: excuse me [New line] Is the DNC / email database you?

Joe Uchill to Guccifer 2.0: The one on Wikileaks?

Guccifer 2.0 to Joe Uchill: yeah, this is exactly that database

Guccifer 2.0 to Joe Uchill: at last!!!

Joe Uchill to Guccifer 2.0: [cut off] there after all this time.

Thomas Rid - Guccifer 2.0

Thomas Rid to Guccifer 2.0: Ping.

Thomas Rid to Guccifer 2.0: My deadline is Sunday.

Thomas Rid to Guccifer 2.0: Sorry for my impatience ;)

Thomas Rid to Guccifer 2.0: So, are these your files? Wikileaks strangely doesn't mention you. [links to tweet from @RidT with text "Wikileaks releases searchable DNC cache-- seemingly only emails, not stand-alone files; doesn't mention Guccifer 2 wikileaks.org/dnc-emails/"]

Guccifer 2.0 to Thomas Rid: yeah man

Guccifer 2.0 to Thomas Rid: all the docs i published are from the dnc server

Guccifer 2.0 to Thomas Rid: as well as the emails i gave the wikileaks

Guccifer 2.0 to Thomas Rid: r u going to a conference The Future of Cyber Security in sep?

Thomas Rid to Guccifer 2.0: Thanks for your response.

Thomas Rid to Guccifer 2.0: Where is that conference?

Guccifer 2.0 to Thomas Rid: cyberuerope.psbeevents.co.uk

Guccifer 2.0 to Thomas Rid: in london

Thomas Rid to Guccifer 2.0: Maybe. Are you coming?

Thomas Rid to Guccifer 2.0: i'm thinking about the way i can participate

Thomas Rid to Guccifer 2.0: Let me know if I can help facilitate

Thomas Rid to Guccifer 2.0: Happy to help

Thomas Rid to Guccifer 2.0: why r u asking these questions

Thomas Rid to Guccifer 2.0: Did you only share emails with Wikileaks of [sic] also stand-alone files?

Thomas Rid to Guccifer 2.0: Because I'm writing a piece about the DNC incident

Guccifer 2.0 to Thomas Rid: is it a new book of yours?

Thomas Rid to Guccifer 2.0: Article

Guccifer 2.0 to Thomas Rid: what r u going to write about me?

Thomas Rid to Guccifer 2.0: You're setting an important precedent with this hack & leak

Thomas Rid to Guccifer 2.0: Can I just check: Did you only share emails with Wikileaks or also stand-alone files?

Guccifer 2.0: i sent them emails, i posted some files in my blog

Guccifer 2.0 hacked DCCC

Hi all!

It's time for new revelations now. All of you may have heard about the DCCC hack. As you see I wasn't wasting my time! It was even easier than in the case of the DNC breach.

As you see the U.S. presidential elections are becoming a farce, a big political performance where the voters are far from playing the leading role. Everything is being settled behind the scenes as it was with Bernie Sanders.

I wonder what happened to the true democracy, to the equal opportunities, the things we love the United States for. The big money bags are fighting for power today. They are lying constantly and don't keep their word. The MSM are producing tons of propaganda hiding the real stuff behind it. But I do believe that people have right to know what's going on inside the election process in fact.

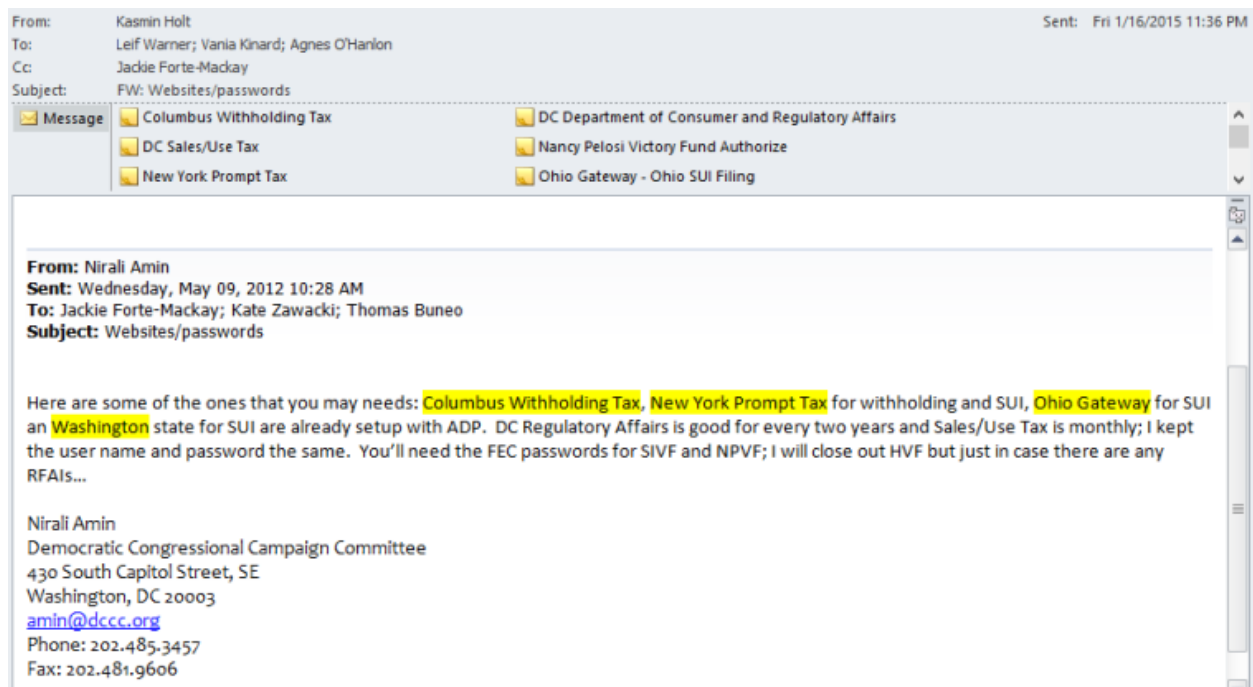

To make a long story short, here are some DCCC docs from their server. Make use of them.

FL-18 Campaign Overview

APRIL 8, 2016

DISTRICT SUMMARY

THE CANDIDATES

Randy Perkins (D)

Randy Perkins is the owner and CEO of Ashbritt. In 1992, Hurricane Andrew hit South Florida with Category 5 winds, uprooting lives, leaving many families displaced, and causing catastrophic damage. To meet these critical needs, Randy's company expanded to include cleanup of damaged communities devastated by the storm. He called the company AshBritt, named for his two eldest daughters: Ashley and Brittany.

Today, AshBritt is one of the nation's leading disaster recovery companies, chosen by the United States Army Corp of Engineers as a partner to provide disaster response and recovery in Florida and around the country. AshBritt has executed more than 200 disaster recovery missions and multiple special environmental projects – serving hundreds of clients in Florida and across the country, and helping American communities recover so they can rebuild following disaster.

Jonathan Chane (D)

Jonathan is a father, community leader, and an advocate for people in South Florida. In addition to his work as an attorney at Domnick Cunningham & Whalen, Jonathan's commitment and passion has been grounded in community service. He is president of the Board of Trustees of Temple Judea in Palm Beach Gardens and is active in the ARC of Palm Beach County and the Jewish Federation of Palm Beach County. He also volunteers his time providing pro bono representation to children and young adults who are aging out of the Palm Beach County foster care program and Holocaust ghetto survivors obtaining reparations from the German government. Jonathan and his wife, Christina, live in North Palm Beach with their three children.

Brian Mast (R)

Brian Mast was raised in the middle class home of James Mast and Timoxena Trujillo in Western Michigan. Brian's parents instilled in him the necessary work ethic and deeply rooted American values that brought him success during his career in the U.S. military.

Brian's father first served in the armed forces during the Korean War as a soldier in the U.S. Army, as did his uncles, all who served their country in different branches of the U.S. military.

FL-07 PATH TO VICTORY SUMMARY

LAST UPDATE: 3/2/2016

PATH TO VICTORY IN 2016:

DEMOCRATS START THIS RACE BEHIND BY 9,583 (49.2% TWO-WAY SUPPORT) VOTES. VICTORY DEPENDS ON THE FOLLOWING:

- REACH 48.5% OF THE VOTE IN SEMINOLE COUNTY, WITH A FLOOR OF 47% OF THE VOTE
- RECEIVE AT LEAST 56% SUPPORT AMONG WOMEN VOTERS
- RECEIVE AT LEAST 70% SUPPORT AMONG HISPANICS/LATINOS AND INCREASE TURNOUT TO 64.3%
- INCREASE TURNOUT AMONG 18-29 YEAR OLDS TO 58.5% AND INCREASE TURNOUT AMONG 30-44 YEAR OLDS TO 69.7%.
- RECEIVE 54% OF THE SUPPORT OF EARLY VOTERS

ABOUT THE DISTRICT:

- FL-07 is a primarily urban and suburban district, consisting of the northeast part of Orlando and Orlando suburbs to the east of U.S. Highway 4 north to Lake Monroe. The Seminole Ranch Conservation Area and Lake Harney bind its eastern border. The Orange County part of the district contains approximately 41.3% of the district's voters and Seminole County contains the other 58.7%. Key population centers in Orange County are Orlando (31.5% of total registered voters), and Winter Park (10.5% of total registered voters). Seminole County has numerous small cities making up approximately 5-10% of the district registered voters; the two largest are Sanford (10.0% of total registered voters) and Oviedo (9.1% of total registered voters).
- The district is covered entirely by the Orlando-Daytona Beach-Melbourne media market, which has an average cost per point of $495 for political candidates and $594 for issue campaigns.
- The district is primarily White (69.1%), but does have significant pockets of minority voters. The African American population is primarily concentrated in Sanford and makes up 9.4% of the total Citizen Voting Age Population (CVAP). Hispanic/Latino residents make up 18.2% of the CVAP; with the densest concentration is in the southeastern part of the district in Orlando. Puerto Ricans are the most predominant Hispanic/Latino ethnic group in the area, but Cubans and Mexicans also make up a large share of the Hispanic/Latino population.
- The district is wealthier than Florida on average; 28% of households make over $100,000 a year, and another 32% make between $50,000 and $100,000 a year.
- Voters between the ages of 18 and 35 make up 28.0% of the district's voting age population making this district one of the youngest in the state. The presence of the University of Central Florida within the Orange County section of this district certainly adds to this dynamic with a stated enrollment of over 60,000 students.
- Florida is a party registration state. Currently, Democrats hold a very slight 0.3 point registration advantage over Republicans (35.3% to 35.0%). Independents make up 29.8% of registrants. Throughout this document, references to partisanship either reflect party registration or modeled partisanship, per Catalist's National Partisanship Model, as noted.

REDISTRICTING:

- A court ruled in late 2015 that Florida's existing congressional map violated state law, and it was redrawn. The un-gerrymandering and elimination of minority packed districts has changed the makeup of FL-07 significantly since 26% of the voters in the new district were formerly in another congressional district. The change makes the district very competitive for Democrats. The new version of FL-07 has a DPI 5.2 points greater than the 2012 version, increasing from 45.6% to 50.8%. It gains African American voters with the addition of Sanford, bringing their share of the CVAP to 9.4% (up from 7.9%). While it loses the heavily Hispanic/Latino city of Deltona, this loss is more than made up for with the addition of the new northeast Orlando section. The Hispanic/Latino CVAP now stands at 18.2%, up from 16.3%. The current district is made up

FL-10 PATH TO VICTORY SUMMARY

LAST UPDATE: 3/9/2016

PATH TO VICTORY IN 2016:

THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE WILL FIRST NEED TO WIN A FOUR-WAY PRIMARY FOR THE NOMINATION. PRIMARY VICTORY DEPENDS ON THE FOLLOWING:

- CONSOLIDATE THE SUPPORT OF AFRICAN AMERICAN PRIMARY VOTERS IN THE ORLANDO AREA
- LEVERAGE EARLY VOTE TO INCREASE TURNOUT IN FAVORABLE DEMOGRAPHIC GROUPS AND GEOGRAPHIC AREAS
- RECEIVE AT LEAST THE PLURALITY OF THE SUPPORT FROM WHITE AND HISPANIC/LATINO WOMEN PRIMARY VOTERS

IN THE GENERAL ELECTION, DEMOCRATS ARE PROJECTED TO START THIS RACE AHEAD BY 11,252 VOTES (55.6% TWO-WAY SUPPORT). ODVIOUSLY CONDITIONS MAY CHANGE FOLLOWING THE PRIMARY. GENERAL ELECTION VICTORY DEPENDS ON THE FOLLOWING:

- AT LEAST 56.5% SUPPORT FROM WOMEN VOTERS
- RAISE HISPANIC TURNOUT TO 60% AND RAISE AFRICAN AMERICAN TURNOUT TO 73%
- MAINTAIN DEMOCRATIC SUPPORT AT 87.5%
- RECEIVE AT LEAST 47% SUPPORT FROM INDEPENDENT VOTERS

ABOUT THE DISTRICT:

- FL-10 is a primarily urban and suburban district containing western Orlando and its southern and western suburbs. The district is located entirely within Orange County; approximately 67.5% of the district's registered voters live in Orlando. Other cities with more than 5% of the district's registered voters include Apopka (11.1%), Winter Garden (7.1%), Ocoee (5.5%), and Windermere (5.2%).
- The district is covered entirely by the Orlando-Daytona Beach-Melbourne media market, which has a cost per point of $495 for political candidates and $594 for issue campaigns.
- This is a very demographically diverse district. African American voters are primarily concentrated in western Orlando and make up 25.1% of the citizen voting age population. Hispanics/Latino residents make up 20.0% of the Citizen Voting Age Population and are distributed fairly equally across the district. The main Hispanic/Latino ethnic group in the district is Puerto Rican. The district is primarily middle and working class: 42% of residents live in households making less than $50,000 a year and another 35% live in households with income between $50,000 and $100,000 a year.
- Florida has party registration and currently Democrats have an 18.5-point registration advantage over Republicans in the district (44.4% to 25.9%). Independents make up 29.7% of registered voters in the district.

REDISTRICTING:

- A court ruled in late 2015 that Florida's current congressional map violated state law and it was redrawn. The un-gerrymandering and elimination of minority-packed districts has had a huge impact on the makeup of FL-10, as it and the old neighboring FL-05 were two of the worst offenders in the state. The new version of FL-10 has a DPI 16.1 points higher than the 2012 version. The district's African American population has more than doubled from 10.5% to 25.1% of the Census Citizen Voting Age Population (CVAP), with additions in the Orlando area. The Hispanic/Latino population also rose from 16.3% of CVAP to 20.0%
- The new 2015 FL-10 is made up of several 2012 congressional districts. The parts added from old congressional districts, and the DPI of those parts, making up the new FL-10 are as follows: FL-10 (43% of new FL-10, 48.8 DPI), FL-05 (37.7% of new FL-10, DPI -75.7%), FL-09 (13.2% of the new FL-10, DPI - 67.4%), and FL-07 (6.2% of the new FL-10, DPI - 48.0%). The parts of the old FL-10 that no longer are part of current FL-10 district were mostly unfavorable to Democrats: 8% of the old FL-10

FL-07 Campaign Overview

FL-07 Campaign Overview

APRIL 1, 2016

DISTRICT SUMMARY

THE CANDIDATES

John Mica (R)

Congressman John L. Mica was first elected to the House of Representatives in 1992 to represent Florida's 7th Congressional District which includes Orange, Seminole and Volusia Counties. He currently serves as the Chairman of the Subcommittee on Government Operations in the Oversight and Government Reform Committee.

Last term, Mica served as the Chairman of the House Transportation and Infrastructure Committee. He remains as a senior member of that panel and will continue to provide leadership in setting sound national infrastructure policy. In that role as the leader of one of the largest committees in Congress with broad legislative jurisdiction, Mica was responsible for developing and overseeing federal policy and projects relating to aviation, highways, transit, rail transportation, pipelines, the Coast Guard, maritime transportation, water infrastructure and resources, economic development, public buildings and emergency management issues.

Susannah Randolph (D)

As of 4/8 Susannah is a candidate in FL-09 but the DCCC has had ongoing conversations with her about moving to FL-07 where she was raised. Backgrounder is available in the candidate information folder in the FL-09 District by District folder.

Susannah Randolph, née Lindberg, started working as a political activist in college and has been doing so ever since. After holding a series of positions with consumer protection and environmental advocacy organizations, she took a job with the controversial political organizing group ACORN. Randolph served as both a Florida political director and legislative director for ACORN. Randolph and her husband, Scott Randolph, were the subject of controversy in 2009, when it was revealed that her husband – then a state representative – had sought funds for an ACORN affiliate at the same time Susannah was registered to lobby on the group's behalf. Randolph later went on to serve as an aide to U.S Rep. Alan Grayson. She worked in his district office and managed his unsuccessful 2010 campaign. While serving as campaign manager, Randolph defended a Grayson campaign ad that compared his opponent, Daniel Webster, to the Taliban and used out of context video footage to accuse Webster of commanding wives to submit to their husbands. After Grayson lost his reelection bid, Randolph went to work as executive director of the liberal advocacy group Florida Watch Now. Randolph was heavily involved in the group's "Pink Slip Rick" campaign, which sought to highlight the Governor's deleterious effect on Florida public sector jobs. Randolph returned to Grayson's office after he was elected to represent Florida's 9th District in 2012. She was still on Grayson's official payroll as of January 2014.

Bob Poe (D)

As of 4/8 Bob is a candidate in FL-10 but the DCCC has had ongoing conversations with him about moving to FL-07. Backgrounder is available in the candidate information folder in the FL-10 District by District folder.

Robert Joseph Poe is a potential Democratic candidate for Florida's Tenth Congressional District, a seat currently held by Rep. Daniel Webster. Poe is currently helping Hillary Clinton's presidential campaign in a volunteer fundraiser capacity after serving as the campaign chairman for Charlie Crist's 2014 gubernatorial bid.

An Orlando native, Poe spent more than 20 years in the broadcast industry, most notably working as station manager of WKIS and VMMO. Poe was also was part of the management team that helped market and secure television contracts for the Orlando Magic, central Florida's professional basketball team. Active in Democratic politics since he was a boy, Poe unsuccessfully ran for state senate in 1980 while remaining involved behind the scenes. In March 2000, he was elected Chairman of the Florida Democratic Party, a post he held until he was pressured to resign in the aftermath of 2002's disastrous election results. Following his resignation, Poe joined the Emergency Communications Network as President, where he stayed until 2011.

AJ Vicens - Guccifer 2.0

AJ Vicens to Guccifer 2.0: I see you have a new release today

Guccifer 2.0 to AJ Vicens: hi, yeah, i'm online again

Guccifer 2.0 to AJ Vicens: how's life?

AJ Vicens to Guccifer 2.0: That's more of a question for you. I'm sure you've seen all of the things that have been written about Guccifer 2.0

AJ Vicens to Guccifer 2.0: What is your reaction to all of that? There have been multiple reports in the US press that you are just a front for Russian intersets. What do you say to that?

AJ Vicens to Guccifer 2.0: As far as new the new material goes, what else is coming?

Guccifer 2.0 to AJ Vicens: as u see i'm still alive

AJ Vicens to Guccifer 2.0: Indeed

AJ Vicens to Guccifer 2.0: Any chance you'd answer the questions above?

Guccifer 2.0 to AJ Vicens: yeah, i'm aware that the publications made a great noise, much more than i even expected :)

AJ Vicens to Guccifer 2.0: But they're saying that you're not an actual person, that you're just a Russian intel front.

Guccifer 2.0 to AJ Vicens: yeah, i know

AJ Vicens to Guccifer 2.0: What do you think about that?

Guccifer 2.0 to AJ Vicens: though i don't like that they attribute the hack to a group of people but i feel safe when they go they go this way

AJ Vicens to Guccifer 2.0: Have you had any contact with Russian government or anyone working with Russia?

Guccifer 2.0 to AJ Vicens: do u mean assange? :)

AJ Vicens to Guccifer 2.0: Haha. Anyone, but including him

AJ Vicens to Guccifer 2.0: It's an important question

AJ Vicens to Guccifer 2.0: Another question: what is the overall goal here?

AJ Vicens to Guccifer 2.0: And thank you for answering questions.

Guccifer 2.0 to AJ Vicens: u mean why do i do it?

AJ Vicens to Guccifer 2.0: Yes

Guccifer 2.0 to AJ Vicens: i think i made it clear in my blog

AJ Vicens to Guccifer 2.0: Right, I saw that. But I guess I'm asking if you're trying to sway the election one way or another

Guccifer 2.0 - Roger Stone

[SSCI investigators have concluded that by mid-day, Stone knew about the Podesta emails]

Guccifer 2.0 to Roger Stone: wow, thank u for writing back, and thank u for an article about me!!!

Guccifer 2.0 to Roger Stone: do u find anything interesting in the docs I posted?

Russell Taub - Guccifer 2.0

Russell Taub to Guccifer 2.0: Can you get a list of Republican donors for me. I am running for office myself.

Guccifer 2.0 to Russell Taub: r u from rhode island?

Russell Taub to Guccifer 2.0: originally no nj

Russell Taub to Guccifer 2.0: But I could use your help to defeat cicilline

Guccifer 2.0 to Russell Taub: how republican donors list would help u?

Guccifer 2.0 to Russell Taub: i'll have a look at what i have

Russell Taub to Guccifer 2.0: I raise some money to put against him. He think he is a God and he thinks he is unbeatable but if I had the resources I can win. And I am only 28 to. [sic]

Guccifer 2.0 to Russell Taub: ho, it seems i have a dossier on cicilline

Guccifer 2.0 to Russell Taub: i can send u a dossier via email

Guccifer 2.0 to Russell Taub: do u have a pgp key?

Russell Taub to Guccifer 2.0: Sept 13, info@russforcongress2016.com

guccifer2@protonmail.com sends email to info@russforcongress2016.com with attachment "Cicilline_David.7z" that Taub apparently cannot open

Guccifer 2.0 - Robbin Young

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: wow, it's a great pleasure for me to get acquainted with u

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: u r a beauty!!!!

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: How come @Wikileaks has never sent me a DM? :joy:

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Hi, and thank you for your kind compliment! :blushing:

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: My mother taught me, "True beautfy comes from within." So, I am beautiful.

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: wow wow wow, that's true

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i'm happy to have a chat with u

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: My parents are deceased, but they were wise.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I'm still unsure if you're Guccifer, because it's difficult to know who's real and who's an impostor. Unfortunately, I don't trust many people these days. I've been fooled, too many times.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Robbin.info a blog post I wrote.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Ok, so I'm not tech savvy, but I did just notice @wikileaks is following you, so I'm going to trust you :smile:

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I'm very happy to have a chat with too, and I'm VERY glad you're back on Twitter! I try not to piss them off, but I did post several Tweets about censorship, when you were banned. I was sooo upset with them, I was going to quit Tweeting, but I realized I didn't want to allow them to stifle my passion.

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: as u see i ain't the same person as Marcel Lazar aka Guccifer, i'm Guccifer 2.0

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: thx for ur trust, it's precious

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i do believe i can help good and honorable people like u to make this world better

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i wish all the politicians were as beautiful and wise as u r

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I figured you weren't Marcel Lazar, since he's in prison, but thank you for being forthright with me.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: So, should I call you 2, or J2.? :joy:

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: You're welcome, and you're making me blush. :blush:

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Beauty is truly, only skin deep! Throughout my lifetime, I've met some of the most beautiful women and handsome men in the world. Many were kind and full of grace, but others had dark hearts. Thus, I've learned to admire more important qualities in a person, than their looks.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I am not college educated, but I am street wise.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Honestly, I don't like politicians....most are greedy, self-serving, and corrupt.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: BTW, my nickname is "Gabby," as you could probably tell by now. :flushed: :smile:

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: WOWee, thank you for liking my Tweet about ! :heart:

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: :heart::heart::heart:

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: thx Gabby

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: You're welcome! OK, so now I'm VERY impresssed with you! :heart: You actually read what I write ("Gabby"). Most people don't.

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: oh, i'm amberresed now :)

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: cause i don't sure now if it's really ur nickname :)

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: :blush: It is! :blush

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: :smile::smile:smile:

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: that's it, i knew u won't cheat me!

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: At first I was insulted when someone called me "Gabby," but once I realized I do tend to talk a LOT, I accepted the nickname. After I get to know someone, I take a breath more often. :joy: I get excited when I first communicate with someone...I can't help it. :blush:

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: There's only one way to shut me up...Kiss me! :smile:

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I know it's improper to ask you personal questions, because you must be careful of your identity. That makes me somewhat sad, because you seem sooo nice, and it would be lovely to know you.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Please know, I appreciate what you do, and I thank you for sharing your knowledge with the world! Without truth, humanity will not survive.

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: that's right, thank u

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I've really enjoyed communicating with you, and I hope we keep in touch... I like you! :heart: Have a wonderful evening! Xoxo

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i appreciate it too :heart:

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I don't mean to be forward, but if either of us gets banned from Twitter and you'd like to keep in touch, here is my contact info (please don't share it, thank you). [Contact info omitted]

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Also, here are several of my photos for you. (My niche is changing my look, via wigs, when modeling.) [Pictures omitted]

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: OK, enough of me. :heart::heart::heart:

The first was a 206-page self-opposition "Research Report" prepared by Walsworth Landset Research for "Team Cicilline," which highlighted "vulnerabilities that Cicilline may encounter during his re-election campaign in 2012." It provided an overview of Cicilline's political career, described his voting patterns, and analyzed Cicilline's background and position on nearly three dozen major issues. The second was a 45- page self-opposition research “Vulnerability Report” prepared for Cicilline for Congress by 3rd Coast Research in May 2010. It analyzed “Top Attacks” against Cicilline on numerous issues and provided in-depth background information about Cicilline. The report states that it is “an internal document and is not intended for public review or circulation.” The third is a 68-page “Polling Memo,” dated April 26, 2010, apparently prepared for the campaign of Cicilline’s 2010 Democratic primary challenger, Bill Lynch. The report summarizes Cicilline’s background and provides commentary on where Cicilline might be vulnerable to attacks.

DCCC Docs on Pennsylvania

I received a great number of messages from my followers asking to release more and more docs on various states. Pennsylvania is the most frequently requested state.

So, here are DCCC docs on Pennsylvania's congressional districts. You may find a thing or two about the Democratic primaries in the state there.

NP PA Political Memo 11 30 15

DCCC POLITICAL MEMO

TO: Leader Pelosi
FROM: Ian Russell, DCCC Political Director (cell: 402-429-7941)
DATE: December 1, 2015
RE: Pennsylvania Political Update

POLITICAL OVERVIEW

In Pennsylvania, Democrats hold just five of the eighteen congressional seats. Redistricting in 2012 made most Republican-held seats more challenging, and as a result no seats changed hands during the 2014 cycle despite a Democratic victory in the gubernatorial race. The most competitive seats in Pennsylvania are in the Philadelphia area, with the most compelling opportunity being the now-open PA-08, held by retiring Rep. Mike Fitzpatrick.

2015 Supreme Court Races – On November 3rd 2015 Democratic-backed candidates swept three of three Pennsylvania Supreme Court races giving Democrats a majority in that body. The Supreme Court plays a role in legislative – but not congressional – redistricting in Pennsylvania.

Governor – In 2010, Republican Governor Tom Corbett defeated Democrat Dan Onorato with 54.5% of the vote. Gov. Corbett was involved in a number of controversial moves during his term in office, including the unpopular privatization of the state run liquor stores and the failure of Corbett's office as Attorney General to investigate several allegations against Jerry Sandusky at Penn State University.

Businessman Tom Wolf won the May 20, 2014 primary with 57.8% of the vote and defeated Corbett by nearly ten points in the general election.

Lt. Governor – In 2014, Jim Cawley was Corbett's running mate, moving through the Republican primary unopposed (the winner of each party's primary nomination joins the gubernatorial candidate's ticket in Pennsylvania). Democrat Michael Stack won the Democratic nomination with 46.7% of the vote. Former Congressman Mark Critz came in a distant 2nd place with 15.8% of the vote. Wolf and Stack defeated Corbett and Cawley in November.

DISTRICT SUMMARY (PRESS)

THE CANDIDATES

Bill Golderer (D)

Bill Golderer is a husband, a father, faith leader, social entrepreneur and educator who has given his life to make the world a better place. Bill is the Founder and Executive Director of Broad Street Ministry - a non-profit and faith community devoted to people who are struggling with the challenges of poverty, hunger and homelessness. Bill also serves as the Senior Pastor of the Arch Street Presbyterian Church in Center City, Philadelphia.

Bill grew up in Wayne in the heart of the Seventh District. From an early age, his mother, Patricia, encouraged him to serve his community and emphasized the importance of service and giving back. Bill's father, William, was raised in Kensington and never had the opportunity to attend college. Despite that, he worked 42 years for Equifax and rose to become a regional Vice President. When Bill was in high school, his mother was diagnosed with colorectal cancer and died within the year. It was a pivotal moment in Bill's life, and the impetus for a career focused on serving others and making the world better.

After attending Southern Methodist University and Yale University Divinity School, Bill went on to serve as a pastor and a professor before returning to Pennsylvania in 2003 to take care of his ailing father and to lay the foundation for Broad Street Ministry. BSM is a major driver of community engagement and social change through the creation of innovative private sector and nonprofit partnerships that have touched the lives of thousands of people in the Philadelphia region. One example of these dynamic partnerships that produce results is the much anticipated opening of the Rooster Soup Company. Rooster Soup has received national attention as the first crowd-funded social enterprise restaurant where 100% of its profits will go to serve those on the margins of society.

DISTRICT SUMMARY

THE CANDIDATES

Shaughnessy Naughton (D)

Shaughnessy was born and raised in Point Pleasant, Bucks County. Growing up one of five children, Shaughnessy learned the value of hard work having seen the struggles of the middle class up close. One of her earliest memories was going to work with her mother, who cleaned homes to help support the family.

After graduating from high school at 16 Shaughnessy attended Bryn Mawr College. During her time there she was awarded a prestigious grant to help develop a new synthesis of a drug to treat breast cancer. Her research eventually led to Phase III clinical testing. After graduating from college with a degree in Chemistry, Shaughnessy worked at Wyeth Laboratories as a key member of the infectious disease research group. Her work in drug discovery and design led to a number of U.S. patents.

Steve Santarsiero (D)

After watching the Twin Towers collapse from his office window, Steve left his job at a prominent law firm to become a high school teacher in the Bensalem School District. He wanted to give back by helping young people reach their potential. Around the same time, he helped organize residents to stop the Matrix development, a proposed big-box shopping center in his home town of Lower Makefield. That effort led community leaders to ask him to run for Township Supervisor in 2003. He won against heavy odds and went on to become the chair of the board.

In 2008, Steve won a strongly contested open seat for the State House that had been held by Republicans for decades. As a state legislator, Steve earned a reputation as a reformer when he repeatedly turned down legislative perks including per diems and state cars.

Michael D. Parrish is the CEO of Daleco Resources Corporation, a Pennsylvania-based natural resources company. Prior to heading Daleco, Parrish founded two businesses. He was a co-founder, and the former Chairman and CEO, of Environmental Infrastructure Holdings Corps, an environmental-business and acquisition firm. Parrish also founded Equisol, LLC, an industrial water solutions company. Parrish has served in the U.S. Army for 28 years and currently serves as a Colonel. He is a board member and former Vice Chairman of Liberty USO, an organization supporting troops and their families.

Parrish's companies have been the subjects of at least nine lawsuits since 2011, including a civil suit alleging corruption, in which Parrish is personally named as a defendant. Additionally, three states have filed tax liens against Equisol totaling $1,160 and Parrish himself received a tax lien from the state of California in 1999 for over $2,000. Since 2008, Parrish has donated over $5,000 to Republicans, including Mitt Romney, John McCain and Tom Corbett.

Background

Guccifer 2.0 - Lee Stranahan

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: hi man

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: how's life

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: Hey

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: Busy -- but you probably know how what [sic] goes...

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: Congrats on all your work. Amazing stuff.

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: ty

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: i can give u some exclusive files

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: what's ur interest?

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: Well, part of the it is the leaks themselves

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: but the other part is the bullshit about who did the hack...

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: Someone sent me to your Twitter and WP sites...and it's really WEIRD to me you aren't getting credit

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: or that Hillary is saying you're the Russian government...

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: What it seems to me is true is that you didn't like what happened to the original Guccifer after his hack and that's why you picked the DNC... is that right, more or less?

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: This is all off the record, by the way, unless you say otherwise.

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: this is almost exactly the way u put it

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: marcel showed me the way, he showed that everything is possible

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: that people shouldn't think they r gods

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: That's why it's so weird that you're not being represented correctly

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: Like you said, I just read what you said...clear enough

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: My wife (not a tech person but smart) told me...

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: "I think the Democrats really want it to be the Russian Government or something you hacked the DNC, because if it's just some smart dude who did it on his own... it's embarrassing for them."

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: And that sounds right - it also benefits them politically, but you shamed them.

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: yeah :)

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: And then it seems like Wikileaks just doesn't reveal sources

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: it's a shame for the it-companies either

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: even though you were OBVIOUSLY the source

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: yes, you owned them publicly...

Guccifer 2.0: they will lose their clients if they recognize that an unknown hacker cracked them :)

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: And it looked like you were surprised the media didn't pick up the leaks

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: this is true for dems

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: you did the hack alone, yes? j [sic]

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: msm r trying to keep their story line

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: yeah

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: exactly

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: Well, I can promise you I'll get the story right.

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: I told Roger about what I'd found and worked on the piece with him

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: but some outlets made good stories about me and let people know the truth

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: ty

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: Because -- and you probably don't really care about this -- I really do think blaming Russia is stupid, dishonest and dangerous

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: my email is stranahan@gmail.com

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: you have other stuff that's not been released, you were saying

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: i don't like that they attribute the hacks to someone else

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: but still

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: if they really go this way i feel safer for they r getting far from reaching me

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: i'll send u some exclusive files

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: Thanks

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: so u mean u've received it?

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: Yes thanks

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: It's an Evernote notebook?

Guccifer 2.0 - Cassandra Fairbanks

Guccifer 2.0 to Cassandra Fairbanks: yeah, i heard

Guccifer 2.0 to Cassandra Fairbanks: another strange death after seth rich was murdered

Cassandra Fairbanks to Guccifer 2.0: [Expresses dismay at lack of coverage]

Guccifer 2.0 to Cassandra Fairbanks: bc msm are for hillary, it's obvious even to me.

[possible missing messages]

Guccifer 2.0 to Cassandra Fairbanks: what outlet do u mean?

Guccifer 2.0 to Cassandra Fairbanks: we r change?

Cassandra Fairbanks to Guccifer 2.0: Sputnik News

Cassandra Fairbanks: I write for a bunch of places, but that's my day job

Guccifer 2.0 - Robbin Young

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: hi, the beauty of my heart

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i'm alright

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: guccifer_2_ isn't mine

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: it's an imposter

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: do ur friends from hollywood know that u follows me?)))

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Yayyy, you're alright! :smile:

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: alright

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I wish I were the beauty of your :heart:

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: It's soooo wonderful to hear from YOU!!! :heart:

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I know it's CrAZY, but I REALLY missed you. :blush:

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I may report the fake account...that isn't right or allowed, unless the person states it's a parody account

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: oh, i didn't think about it

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Actually, as much as I Tweet about you, and given the fact you're my pinned Tweet...I think the entire world knows I follow you. :smile: I admire and respect you, and I'm proud people know I believe in you.

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: it seems he doesn't do any harm to me

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: It's a Twitter rule, and it should be followed. It confuses people. God forbid he/she Tweeted something you didn't approve of, it could be harmful to your cause.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I never Tweeted that you follow me, because that would be arrogant of me to boast about such a thing...although, it did make my day! :smile:

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I get sooo mad at the Hollywood stars that endorse Hillary, I boycott their shows and music! Screw them! :joy:

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: maybe they still don't know about me :joy:

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: EVERYONE in the world, knows about YOU! :smile:

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: u have a hard choice to make this year

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: But, the most important thing to remember is...I truly adore you!
:heart:

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i mean poor candidates

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: with lack of credibility

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I was never a political Tweeter until the attack in Benghazi. After that, I despised Obama and Hillary.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I never voted for Obama...I just tolerated him, quietly. After Benghazi, I became VERY vocal regarding my feelings. Obama and Hillary allowed our 4 Americans to be murdered, and then they lied to the world about it, by blaming the attack on a video.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I've always been a registered Republican, but I've always sided with the best candidate...not the party. This year, is an extremely difficult year for me.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I know people are passionate about 3rd party candidates, but I truly feel it's a wasted vote if people don't vote for a Democrat or a Republican.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: In the 80's, I met Donald Trump, and had dinner with him and his wife. I was dating a close friend of his. He was a charming man, and he seems very passionate about the USA, but...I wish to God, he'd quit saying stupid things all the time. I just want to kick him in the ass, at times. :blush:

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I'm VERY afraid, because most people I speak to, don't care what Hillary has done in the past...they love her, and want a woman as POTUS. Sigh

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: So, I will be voting for Trump, because Hillary is so evil.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: It amazes me, how corrupt our media is! I never realized it, until this election. I think because of you, I saw the light. I couldn't believe how the media attempted to blame Russia, instead of focusing on the BIG picture...how corrupt and evil, Hillary and the Dems are. They destroyed Bernie, and that was very unfair. I just wish he would have gotten mad at the DNC, instead of endorsing Hillary.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I've thought about it, and if Hillary becomes POTUS, I'd love to leave America. As much as I love my country, I can't imagine living here, under her rule.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: That's a VERY sad thing, to have to say!

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I see you've been a very busy beaver. :smile: I just Tweeted about your latest post.

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: sorry i kept u waiting...

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: this.. I wanted to say..

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: before looking at ur photos

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: now

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i'm speechless

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: u made my day now

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i'm forgetting what i was doing

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: everything i want to do now is to look at u again and again

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i'm impressed u can combine both ur beauty and wisdom

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Hi! No need to apologize...I'm not a needy person, and I know you're very busy. I just sincerely thank you for writing to me, and letting me know you're alright. Yes, I do adore you, so when you write to me, my :heart: skips a beat.

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: [Seven heart emojis]

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: btw, this doesn't mean i'm bored with ur political messages

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: You're making me blush, with your sweet compliments. Thank you very much!

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i adore ur ability to speak freely on politics and ur feelings

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I'm not college educated, but I've traveled to several countries in the world, and I consider myself to be street wise. I'm also a sponge for knowledge, and why I'm so attracted to you. I think you're a brilliant man.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: :heart:

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I'm extremely passionate, and I feel a close connection with you, so it's easy for me to speak from my heart.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: It's weird, you're like my secret lover. :heart:

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i feel my compassion about ur possible necessity to leave the country

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i love this role :blush:

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: sigh

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I don't know if you ever read my blog post Robbin.info but before 2008, I could afford to go anywhere in the world. Now, I don't have money to travel anywhere. I'm stuck in hell, if Hillary is elected.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I pray to God, every night, that the USA will survive this horrid time.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: :blush: I dreamed I was blindfolded and kidnapped, and when I arrived at my final destination, I kept my blindfold on...and you whispered in my ear, and then we kissed passionately. :heart: I was never afraid, because I was hoping it was you!

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Yes, "sigh" because life is unfair...but, at least I have you here, and in my heart. :heart:

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: it sounds so sweet

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i wish we could have a date

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I'm single and don't date anyone, so I will pray that someday we WILL enjoy a date. :heart: I would love to talk to you, kiss you passionately, make love to you, and snuggle safely in your arms. :heart:

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: :heart: [youtu.be/yCmsZUN4r\[?\]](http://youtu.be/yCmsZUN4r[?])s :heart: [Faith Hill - Breathe]

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Me, thinking of you! :heart:

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: :heart: I'm a romantic, if you didn't know by now. :heart: After all the heartache, in my life...I still believe in Prince CHarming, and happily ever after.

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: wow, u r making me breath harder

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: ur soul's so pure and unspoiled

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: it beckons me

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Thank you for recognizing that in me. :heart: You know, your words are lovely...you should write poetry.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I've never communicated with anyone before, that was as romantic as I am. You, amaze me.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I write erotic literature, and here's one of my favorite poems

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: 'Naughty Addiction'©

Your hardness
Slides between my lips
My tongue circles
The tip,
Savoring the salty taste,
I close my eyes
And take you deep
Within my mouth...
Inch by inch.
I crave you...
When my heart is breaking
And my world is crumbling
Beneath my feet.
Or...
When I'm sexually satiated
After hours of sensual lovemaking.
You're my Naughty addiction,
I desire.
Mmmm,
French Fries.
Why do you
Satisfy me so?

By Robin Young ©

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i know u are kidding about ur orgasms, but it's still flattering me

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: wow wow wow, it made me hard... [blushing emoji] and then burst out of laughing

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: [joy emoji joy emoji joy emoji]

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: perfect!!!!

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: so, i have nothing else to add a sense of humor to all ur attractiveness

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: u seem an ideal woman

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I'm happy you enjoyed my poem. [smiley emoji] I was sitting in my car in a parking lot, eating french fries, when it came to me.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: A sense of humor, is imperative to a happy life. Laugh, and the world laughs with you...Cry, and you cry alone

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I [heart emoji] you!

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I always say what I'm feeling, because my motto in life is... This is Not a Dress Rehearsal, Make Every Moment Count!

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I was a professional Polynesian dancer for 18 years, and in 2001 ...I finally fulfilled my dream of going to French Polynesia. I went alone, and wish I'd never returned to the USA. The Islands were "Heaven On Earth" and I hope to return there, someday. I wrote this erotic poem, about the island of Bora Bora.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: [party hat emoji smiley emoji]

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: wow

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: stunned

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: [seven heart emojis]

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i wish that was me

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: a hero of ur poetry

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: what does Polynesian dance look like?

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i'm shy of my dreams about u

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I didn't realize the islands of French Polynesia were a honeymoon destination, went [sic] I went there alone. I'd sit in my over-water Bungalow, at night, and hear lovers having sex in the Bungalows next to me....so, I wrote that poem, as I masturbated. [blush emoji, smile emoji]

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I wish you had been with me!!! [heart emoji]

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: This is me in my Polynesian costume. [no picture attached/visible]

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Hawaiian dancing is when I tell a story with my hands. Tahitian dancing is when I tell a story with my hips.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: You're shy to tell me your dreams of me, or shy to have them?

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i wish i had been, it sounds like a fairy tale, my imagination is drawing pictures and body seems to reflect urs

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: it seems i'm shy of both things

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I apologize, I got distracted when I read the @wikileaks Tweet about someone climbing the wall at Julian's embassy. God, I hope he's OK!

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I have to relax, or I'll get too stressed. I'm sure he's fine.

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: I hope he's perfectly protected.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I do, too.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Ok, back to us, so I can relax. [heart emoji]

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: so, send me another private picture of yours if u please, it'll help me relax

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: French Polynesia was definitely a living fairy tale. Who knows, perhaps someday we'll go there, together.

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: wow, u r reading my mind, i mean about relax

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i'm excited...

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: ur grils r making me mad

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: What girls?

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: they're fantastically big and sweet

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Ohhhhh, LOL! [blush emoji, smile emoji, joy emoji, heart emoji]

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: [Four joy emojis, three heart emojis]

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: stop now or i'll get crazy

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: leave some for next time

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: maybe u'll take some especially for me in the future

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: now i feel i can go and have some sweet dreams while i have a sleep

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Yes, that would be fun. [smiley emoji]

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: it seems u make me forgetting about all troubles and moves me in a happy world

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Goodnight, my secret lover, and I hope you sleep well. [heart emoji] xoxo

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: be cautious or i won't want to come back from that dream world [smiley emoji, five heart emojis]

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: and i enormously grateful to u

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: thx a lot

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: My goal is to make you relaxed, and happy! [heart emoji]

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: u r in my heart

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: bye

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: You know, you are in my heart too! I adore you! [four heart emojis]

Robbin young to Guccifer 2.0: Goodnight! xoxo

Lee Stranahan - Guccifer 2.0

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: nm, figured it out

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: WOW -- that Black Lives Matter thing is a huge deal

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: hi, r the docs of any use for u?

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: Yes, especially the Black Lives Matter one

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: what u gonna do with them?

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: I would like to do a story on the black lives matter document - can we arrange for you to post that document on your site at a certain time?

Guccifer 2.0 - Raphael Satter

Raphael Satter to Guccifer 2.0: Why not send this data to WikiLeaks? They would likely publish it, it seems.

Raphael Satter to Guccifer 2.0: Why bother sending it to a reporter you can't necessarily rely on?

Raphael Satter to Guccifer 2.0: Also, are these files identical to the ones on your website?

Guccifer 2.0 to Raphael Satter: i gave wikileaks a greater part of docs

Raphael Satter to Guccifer 2.0: Why not give them all the docs?

Guccifer 2.0 to Raphael Satter: i don't know when or if they gonna publish them

HelloFLA - Guccifer 2.0

[Unknown number of messages cut off and missing]

Guccifer 2.0 to HelloFLA: i can send u some docs via email

HelloFLA to Guccifer 2.0: Great! Editor@hellofla.com I'm just getting my kid from school but I'll be able to get it up pretty quick after I get it. Thanks!

Guccifer 2.0 to HelloFLA: do u have a size limit?

HelloFLA to Guccifer 2.0: Good question.

Guccifer 2.0 to HelloFLA: ok, let's see

HelloFLA to Guccifer 2.0: I'm going to setup the ftp on the contact form when I get back to the computer. Can you give me a half hour. How big?

Guccifer 2.0 to HelloFLA: i'll send u about 6 emails

HelloFLA to Guccifer 2.0: it seems one is done

HelloFLA to Guccifer 2.0: Ok. Option b is I setup an account at Dropbox with the username editor@hellofla.com You can dump them in there.

HelloFLA to Guccifer 2.0: Pw: 2468Great

Guccifer 2.0 to HelloFLA: ok, let's try it

Guccifer 2.0: [14 minutes later] done

HelloFLA to Guccifer 2.0: Awesome! I'll get it up shortly. Thanks :)

HelloFLA to Guccifer 2.0: My damn internet is down and it's a lot to sort through. I'll get it up ASAP. I may need to use that library plugin I just got. Thanks again!

HelloFLA to Guccifer 2.0: [message cut off, date cut off] Thanks again. It's too much for me to handle by myself

Lee Stranahan - Guccifer 2.0

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: hi man

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: i think it's possible, why not

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: is it some special date?

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: Hey

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: Yes let's figure out what date that should be

The Smoking Gun - Guccifer 2.0

The Smoking Gun to Guccifer 2.0: [Asks about communications with Roger Stone]

Guccifer 2.0 to The Smoking Gun: why r u asking?

Guccifer 2.0 to The Smoking Gun: the fbi's tracing me, reading my dm [direct messages] and giving u hints.

Guccifer 2.0 to The Smoking Gun: No? :)

Guccifer 2.0 to The Smoking Gun: i won't comment on my conversations with other ppl.

Guccifer 2.0 to The Smoking Gun: why r u so interested in stone? he's just a person who wrote a story about me. or i don't know some important stuff?

Flipper4Trump - Guccifer 2.0

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: [unknown amount of text cut off and missing] CONN TO MCD. MORE ONCE U ABSORB. HOPE MY INTEL GOOD.

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: Lastly. My white friends don't know anything about ASSADA. My black ones. And BLM. Are wth ! Whole premise of BLM is about ASSADA and justice. Blm. Premise correct. Strategy flawed.

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: Thanks for your time.

Guccifer 2.0 to Flipper4Trump: ok, thx

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: Good stuff ?

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: U r busy. No worries.

Flipper4Trump to Guccifer 2.0: [Message cut off and illegible, date unclear]

Robbin Young - Guccifer 2.0

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Whew, I've been busy Twittering the past few days! I'm going to be offline until Thursday, so I wanted to send my [heart emoji] to you and say "Goodnight, Gucci." xoxo

August 25, 2016

Guccifer 2.0 - Lee Stranahan

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: any suggestions?

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: Tell me when works best for you -- we can work with your release schedule.

Robbin Young - Guccifer 2.0

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: [Four heart emoji]

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Sooo, it sounds like "the sh*t will be hitting the fan" with the Hillary leaks...Yayyy! [joy emoji] I have to tell you, if I found out she gave or knew about the "Stand Down" order in Benghazi (and she got men killed, and lied to the world about it) I'm going to blow up on Twitter!!! God, I despise her!

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Sorry, that's my Hillary rant for today. [blush emoji]

Robbin young to Guccifer 2.0: I'm not worried about you, I just know you must be VERY busy right now, with the election coming up. Whenever you get a chance, no pressure, please say "Hi." [smiley emoji] I [heart emoji] You!

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: Hi

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: :)

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Hi! [smiley emoji] I didn't expect to hear back from you, so soon.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Yayyyy, you just made my day brighter! [three heart emojis]

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: [heart emoji] Thank you! [heart emoji]

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Please don't forget to vote in my Twitter poll. [smiley emoji]

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: ok, i won't, my sweetheart

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: there's a thing that doesn't leave my mind making me feel sad every day

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I feel the same thing, ever since you mentioned wishing we could have a date, and the nposted a sigh It makes my heart sad, too. Life is soooo unfair, sometimes!!!

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: that is, u r reading my mind

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: We are VERY connected...our chemistry is strong!

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I know nothing about you, and can't, but yet you have my heart!

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: but there's also a story about one whistleblower of mine and my assistant

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i feel that u r the person i can trust

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: and i can share some thoughts with Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I feel I can trust you too, and I rarely trust anyone, anymore. Everyone seems to always only care aobut themselves. VERY sad!

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I wish I were able to be near you, so you had someone you know truly cares about you. I'm sure you have friends, but we do have an amazing connection.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: As much as I want you to be able to share your thoughts with me, I also want you to be be very careful! I worry if sending DM's, to one another, is private.

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: yeah [heart emoji], i just thought that u can help me settle my worries

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i won't feel happy until i resolve this issue

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Then talk to me, because I don't want you to worry.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Would you like to tell me the issue that's worrying you?

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Just be careful not to mention where you are located, if case [sic] people monitor DM's. I'd die, if anything happened to you! [blush emoji]

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Is there a problem with the whistleblower and the assistant?

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i don't want to break ur heart sweetie, so i'll be VERY careful

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i'll make hints :)

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I swear, I think my heart would stop, not just break. [blush emoji]

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I'm not worried, I pray for you EVERY night!!!

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: OK, make hints and please tell me what's worrying you. I want to try to help you relax.

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i'm looking for someone, a person of trust who can be a gurantee in case something happens to me

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Can't you trust Julian?

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: u see, he's unsafe

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Unsafe as in, he's in danger?

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: and he may be in connected with russians, i don't like it though he's my hero

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Oh dear...this IS a problem!

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: u may know a person who can do an investigation and dig the truth on one sensitive case

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Do you and Snowden get along?

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: :)

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: u may don't know

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: but some ppl say he's a gay

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I thought he was a hero, from day one, and I Tweeted for his safety when he had no where to hide. I don't know anything about him though.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I read he lived with his girlfriend in Russia, and that's the only person info I know about him.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I never sent him DM's!

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: When I had money, I could have gotten info on anyone I wanted. I had my own private investigator on staff and a bodyguard, but now that I'm financially insolvent, my resources have dried up.

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i'm not sure about him, but anyway he's a great man

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i think money doesn't make us happier

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I've met a lot of famous and infmaous people in my lifetime, so maybe the case is about one of them.

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i don't think so but u may hear about him

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I think money does buy happines, but not love! Happiness meaning food, shelter and good healthcare.

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i'd like to find a journalist who can do an investigation and teel [sic] the real story of his life and death

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: True love, can NEVER be bought!

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Who is this person?

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: his name is seth, he was my whistleblower

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i suppose u know who i'm talking about

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Yes, and it was horrifying to hear about his death. I have no facts, but it's my opinion Hillary had him murdered.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: OMG, you MUST be VERY careful!

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: What is the issue with your assistant! Do you feel you can't trust him or her?

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: It seems I can trust him, but he can't be a public figure asking questions, this will endanger him

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: I'm eager to find fact about Seth, I'm sure it wasn't just a robbery

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: I'd be grateful to you if there's any chance you can help me find the person who can find the evidence that Seth was assassinated

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Sorry, I was Twitter bashing Hillary!

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I've read the stories regarding his death. It was definitely NO robbery!!! I've even thought he might have been murdered, by someone in the ambulance, since he was breathing and alive when being transported to the hospital.

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: yeah, that may be

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: but nobody writes about this

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: and I'd like to find out the truth

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Think like a criminal, and things will become clear. I've watched a lot of 007 films, so I think like a spy, lol

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: lol

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: I feel sorry for his parents

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Damn it, I'm not in Washington, D.C., and I have no ties there. What about the journalist you follow, Cassandra? I don't know if she can be trusted, but she is in D.C.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: On TV crime shows, the detectives say the only way to catch a criminal is to act like one.

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: though I don't know them personally I'd like to send them my condolences Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: They must be devastated. Also, he was on the phone with his girlfriend when the first shots were fired. Has anyone spoken with her?

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: No, don't contact his family...you must remain STEALTH for your own safety! He would understand, and want you to be safe from harm so you can find out the truth.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I didn't sleep well last night, so I'm going to take a nap now. Good night my love, and stay safe! [heart emoji]

Lee Stranahan - Guccifer 2.0

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: Just let me know

Lee Stranahan - Guccifer 2.0

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: When can you release that black lives matter document?

August 29, 2016

Guccifer 2.0 - Lee Stranahan

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: hi there

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: i gonna post blm doc along with some other files tomorrow or the next day

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: Ok when you have a firmer idea give me the heads up because I will go write the story to go along with the release

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: ok

Guccifer 2.0 - Robbin Young

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: hi sweetie

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: r u ok?

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i worry if it's all right with u?

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Hi my love, I've missed you VERY much, but I know you're busy with the election coming up. I've been trying not to bother you. [blush emoji]

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: [four heart emojis]

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I hurt my back, and I'm in pain 24/7 (I refuse pain meds), so I'm not feeling great. In fact, I'm leaving for a doctor's appointment, shortly.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Thank you for asking [heart emoji] and how are you?

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Have you heard about the 'uncensored' social network site, similar to Twitter? Gab.ai This guy @torbahax just started it, last week and it's already making the news. I've joined gab.ai/RobbinYoung and he was kind enough to verify my account. I have to work on setting up my profile, and I've got to post, but I will very soon. I think it's a great idea to have more than one option, and also NOT to be censored. You and wikileaks should think of joining, too. [smiley emoji]

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I've go to leave for my appointment, and I'll be back online later tonight.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I don't want you to worry about me, but I do want you to care about me. [heart emoji] I Love You! [heart emoji] xoxoxoxoxoxo

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Hi! [smiley emoji] I just got home, and I'd like to ask you something. When you said you "worry" about me, is it because I've been too outspoken regarding my disdain for Hillary? I'm not a paranoid person, but do you think my Tweets are raising red flags with the wrong people?

August 30, 2016

Guccifer 2.0 - Lee Stranahan

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: how about doing it today?

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: Okun, what time? It's about 9 AM where I am in Idaho and I'd like about eight hours to get things set up on this end if that's OK

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: so if u need some certain time just let me know and we'll arrange it

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: OK, let me work on this on this and I will ping you back

Lee Stranahan to Guccifer 2.0: Tomorrow morning or the middle of the night or something might actually work better

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: hmm, is it so important when I posted it? I can do it now and u publish ur material when u want

Guccifer 2.0 to Lee Stranahan: is it that necessary that i post it at the certain hour?

Guccifer 2.0 - Robbin Young

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: hello honey

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Good Morning! [heart emoji]

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i worried about u cause i'm afraid it may be unsafe for u to chat with me

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: have u heard seaman was censored from huffpost?

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Do you think people read our DM's?

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I just did a search and read about Seaman. OMG, what is happening in the USA?! We've lost our freedom to speak! [blush or head explode emoji]

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: The Huffington Post has always been biased, so I read their articles knowing they're not telling the truth.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: That was probably a stupid question...I'm sure Twitter views everything, even DM's. Big brother is always watching everything people do. VERY upsetting, but I will not allow anyone to censor my voice! I may not have inside info to share with the world (I'm not a whistleblower) but I can enlighten my followers with the truth by Tweeting it.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I don't see how it's unsafe for me to chat with you, because we don't speak about things they would be interested in. Everything we chat about, is read to read in the news, every day. I've told no one we privately communicate, and if anyone ever questioned me, honestly...there's nothing I could tell them, that would be of value to them. I admire and adore you, and if someone wants to harm me for loving you [heart emoji] so be it.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: [three heart emojis]

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I do think Hillary's people have read my Tweets are not happy. Overnight, 1100 of my followers were deleted, and some of my followers say that they think Twitter may be shadowing my Tweets (but I don't even understand what that means). Good grief, I need to take a computer class [blush emoji] so I know more about the Internet.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: My biggest fear is being banned from Twitter, because I'd never get to speak with you again, and that would break my heart! If our chatting is causing problems for you, please let me know, and we can stop. Otherwise, I don't care if anyone tries to harm me for speaking with you. The power of God, who protects me, is far greater than any mortal man...so, screw the people who try to stifle my voice. God forbid they killed me. I'd go to heaven where I'd join my parents. I don't fear death...I fear being unable to speak the truth!

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I don't have a way to take screenshots, but this person @Jwv1980 is harassing me for standing up for wikileaks. I didn't reply to him, and I blocked him.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I copied these DM's he sent me, this morning.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: You are so stupid. It's nice to see that our enemies have accomplished their goal. To turn us against the very people who keep us safe.

Captain IDGAF!

You advocate for a rapist who's been kicked out of many countries for a reason.

Captain IDGAF!

Before you post anymore garbage from a criminal who puts our security at risk, learn about the man who's telling you bullshit.

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Screw him, and his ignorant hate!!!

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: My love, I have run errands [sic] today, so I must say good-bye. Be safe, and know someone loves and adore [sic] you...Me! [heart emoji]

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: don't take him to heart

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: he's an unworthy and stray man

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: ur soul is light and pure

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: keep it for the best things in this world

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: be safe. kissing ur hot lips

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: [three heart emojis]

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I never fight with hateful people...I just block them. [smiley emoji]

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I dream of passionately kissing you. [heart emoji] I hope you don't mind me telling you, but from my heart, and I care deeply for, and about you!

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: [heart emoji] I Love You! [heart emoji]

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: me too!!!!

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: [four heart emojis]

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: [four ta da party hat emojis]

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: i look at ur photos from time to time dreaming of u

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: beauty of me heart

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: You are so romantic, you touch my heart like no one has ever done before. I truly adore you!

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: so do i ;)

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I don't care what you look like, it's your heart and soul I've fallen in love with. [heart emoji]

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: I want you to view my photos, so you can smile and forget about the terrible things in the world. I want to make you happy and relaxed!

Robbin Young to Guccifer 2.0: Dam, I have to leave for my appointment, or I'll be late. I'll write to you, again, tonight. ALL my Love, ALWAYS! "Gabby" [smiley emoji two heart emojis]

Guccifer 2.0 to Robbin Young: my kisses will meet u when u return

MEMORANDUM TO DCCC STAFF

TO: DCCC Staff
FR: Troy Perry
DT: Thursday, November 19th, 2015
RE: Black Lives Matter Movement (Internal Use Only)

Presidential candidates have struggled to respond to tactics of the Black Lives Matter movement.

While there has been little engagement with House candidates, candidates and campaign staff should be prepared. This document should not be emailed or handed to anyone outside of the building. Please only give campaign staff these best practices in meetings or over the phone.

Please see below for best practices:

Background

What does BLM want?

- Radical movement to end “anti-black racism”
 - Though police abuses are a central component, the founders view the movement more broadly
- Criminal Justice System reform: sentencing reform, ending prison industrial complex, police reform: referring to hiring, training, and unfair policing tactics.
- An end to police brutality, the killings of unarmed African Americans (the impetus of the movement being the acquittal of George Zimmerman)
 - Collect data on police shootings
 - Demilitarization of the police

Tactics

Meet with Local Activists

If approached by BLM activists, campaign staff should offer to meet with local activists. Invited BLM attendees should be limited. Please aim for personal or small group meetings.

- Listen to their concerns
- Don't offer support for concrete policy positions
- Frontline district staff should meet with activists

DCCC Memo on Surrogates and Paying for House Volunteer Travel

February 29, 2016

TO: Democratic House Members
FROM: Marc E. Elias
RE: Supporting Congressional Campaigns

Introduction

This memorandum briefly addresses how Members of the House of Representatives and official House staff may voluntarily support congressional campaigns.¹ The guidance in this memo will help to ensure that any volunteer participation is in compliance with legal and ethical requirements.

Guidance

A. Official Staff Participation in Campaigns

1. Restrictions and Conditions on Official Staff Campaign Activity

Official staff may participate in campaign activities during a federal election, but there are a number of restrictions on how official House staff may engage in campaign activity in compliance with legal and ethical requirements. Such activity must be voluntary and should in no way interfere with the performance of a staffer's official duties.

A House staffer may only volunteer for a campaign on his or her own time. This time may be available in off-hours, or during periods of bona fide vacation or leave time. It is not necessary for a House staffer to cease his or her official employment to volunteer with a political campaign as long as the volunteer work is not done on official time and does not take away from official duties.

No official House resources (including staff time, computers, fax machines, telephones, and copiers) may be used to benefit a campaign; they are to be used solely for legislative and representative purposes. Campaign activity is also prohibited in House offices, and House telephone numbers may not be used for campaign purposes.

Recent Immigration Reform Proposals

Recent Immigration Reform Proposals from the 113th Congress

Terms to Know

Pathway to Citizenship: Provides a way for undocumented immigrants to attain citizenship. Most proposals require background checks, payment of back taxes, and fluency in English as criteria for eligibility. Most proposals also contain intermediary steps such as new legal status or permanent legal status before the citizenship process begins. Additionally, supporters of a pathway to citizenship want to ensure “no uncertainty” for eligible immigrants on whether or not they will attain citizenship.

Employer Verification: Requires employers to verify the legal status of their employees. Most proposals include mandatory use of the E-Verify system for medium to large business within two to three years of the bill’s passage. Currently, 20 states mandate that some business use the E-Verify system, which has become more accurate recently. 96% of all immigration checks made through the system were found to be accurate.

Border Security: Recent proposals have made a pathway to citizenship contingent on enhanced border security. Plans to improve border security include investments in border infrastructure and an increase in border security agents. However, studies have shown that raising the level of security along the border couldn’t happen until 2019 and would cost twice the amount spent in 2012, roughly $28 billion a year. Reports have also shown that the level of illegal border crossings decreases substantially when the Mexican economy performs better, as it has been recently. This raises questions about the cost effectiveness of additional border security spending.

STEM Education and High Skilled Immigrants: STEM stands for science, technology, engineering, and mathematics. Currently, H1-B visas are issued for skilled workers. They are capped at 65,000 for all workers and 20,000 for workers with a master’s degree or higher. Nonprofit organizations, governmental research institutions, and universities are exempt from this cap. Demand for these visas far outpaces the current cap of 85,000. H1-B Visas can only be issued for established business. Opening them to potential entrepreneurs is a policy gaining significant attention because of its job creation potential.

“DREAMers”: Unauthorized immigrants who are under the age of 31; entered the United States before age 16; have lived continuously in the country for at least five years; have not been convicted of a felony, a “significant” misdemeanor, or three other misdemeanors; and are currently in school, graduated from high school, earned a GED, or served in the military.

Re: ISIS Backgrounder

Origins

In short: Our invasion created the atmosphere for a Jordanian to start a Muslim sectarian war, which ultimately created ISIS.

Zarqawi enters Iraq: When the U.S. invaded Iraq in 2003 we triggered a massive insurgency against our presence. Around this time, a Jordanian ex-convict named Zarqawi travelled to Iraq with one goal: to establish a religious state just for Sunni Muslims. Zarqawi wanted a civil war between Sunnis and Shias and led attacks on Shias that triggered counterattacks. Zarqawi's attacks on Muslims in the name of Islam drew condemnation from other jihadist groups and figures (including Bin Laden).

Iraqi Mistakes: The Administration of Iraq's Prime Minister (Maliki) was discriminatory to Sunnis, which helped recruit Sunni Iraqis to Zarqawi's group. Maliki's prejudicial governing style worsened after U.S. troops left Iraq, helping quickly deteriorate the situation further.

Now called ISIS: Zarqawi was killed by American forces in 2006. His successors now lead the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria (ISIS).

Benghazi Aftermath

Value statement: Let's remember the sacrifice of these Americans, not reduce their names to political talking points. We must protect and value our diplomats.

On September 11, 2012, an attack in Benghazi, Libya resulted in the deaths of two CIA contractors and two American diplomats, including U.S. Ambassador Chris Stevens. The country was already in chaos after the NATO-aided toppling of brutal long-term dictator Muammar Qaddafi the month before.

Key Names:

Ambassador Chris Stevens and Foreign Service Information Management Officer Sean Smith: American diplomats killed in the attack

Glen Doherty and Tyrone S. Woods: CIA contractors killed in the attack

Susan Rice: Former U.S. Ambassador to the U.N., who gave incorrect information

Ahmed Abu Khattala: Militia member arrested by U.S. for alleged participation in Benghazi attack, awaiting trial in DC

Muammar al-Qaddafi (aka Qaddafi or Gaddafi): Libyan Dictator toppled by Libyans and NATO in August 2011

Officials and the media struggled in the aftermath to assemble a coherent narrative of the confusing, tragic events. On September 16, then-Ambassador to the United Nations Susan Rice gave incorrect information on television, suggesting the attacks arose spontaneously from a protest of an anti-Islam video produced in the United States, which contradicted some early reports and which later proved false. The violence is now believed to have been a planned attack by extremists with ties to Islamist anti-Qaddafi militias, which were gaining power in the post-Qaddafi vacuum.

An alleged leader of the attack, Ahmed Abu Khattala, was arrested in Libya in June 2014 and brought to Washington, DC to await trial. He had a routine detention hearing in early July 2015.

The political and media climate was, and remains, both emotional and pedantic.

Legitimate outrage over the deaths of American diplomats mixed with partisanship.

Then-Amb. Rice was accused of deliberately lying about the circumstances of the attack for political reasons, and Pres. Obama was grilled for his initial choice of terminology: "act of terror" instead of "terrorist attack." The word "Benghazi" itself has become a wry shorthand among the political left for hysterical conservative conspiracy theory.

Recurring questions and sticking points include:

- the motivation for and level of premeditation of the attack,
- if U.S. intelligence agencies had prior knowledge of a specific credible threat against

American diplomats in Libya,

Guccifer 2.0 to Joe Uchill: yeah, i think this is an unfair sentence

Guccifer 2.0 to Joe Uchill: romania shouldn't have extradited him

Joe Uchill to Guccifer 2.0: How so?

Guccifer 2.0 to Joe Uchill: there's something strange about his story

Guccifer 2.0 to Joe Uchill: marcel pleaded guilty at first,

Guccifer 2.0 to Joe Uchill: but then the fbi said he hadn't hacked her emails

Guccifer 2.0 to Joe Uchill: what is it then he got such a strict sentence for?

Joe Uchill to Guccifer 2.0: I think he hacked a few other people - G.W.Bush's sister, the woman who wrote Sex in the City, one of Clinton's advisors.

Guccifer 2.0 to Joe Uchill: but i don't think this should cost him 4 more years

Damian Paletta - Guccifer 2.0

Guccifer 2.0 to Damian Paletta: I read several reports, some experts found out that my proxy IP is hosted at a service that's somehow connected with Russia and has a version in Russian as well as in English[.] This is their strong evidence [smile emoticon]

Guccifer 2.0 to Damian Paletta: If I drive BMW, does it mean I'm German?

Guccifer 2.0 to Damian Paletta: I believe in case with the U.S. this is the most safe point to use Russian and Chinese services

Guccifer 2.0 to Damian Paletta: That is not my goal

Guccifer 2.0 to Damian Paletta: My goal is to bring the truth, I call it to bring the light.

Guccifer 2.0 to Damian Paletta: [I have been] hacking for many years.

Guccifer 2.0 to Damian Paletta: [I am releasing this information because] the big capital has occupied the policy [and] big [information technology] companies are leading us to the disaster [of] global electronization.

Guccifer 2.0 to Damian Paletta: I think I won't have a better opportunity to promote my ideas than this year.

Damian Paletta to Guccifer 2.0: [Do you have more information to make public?]

Guccifer 2.0 to Damian Paletta: I certainly have more info.

Guccifer 2.0 to Damian Paletta: [Expresses desire to have hero status for the hacks]

Guccifer 2.0 to Damian Paletta: It made me angry they attributed my deals to the Russians[.] But then I realised [sic] the deeper they go this way the safer I am.

HelloFLA - Guccifer 2.0

Nobody will believe them when they claim they're hacked and their political career is over. HAHA

Guccifer 2.0 to HelloFLA: u r a funny guy :)

Guccifer 2.0 to HelloFLA: it will be interesting even just for lulz :)

Guccifer 2.0 to HelloFLA: 😂😂😂

HelloFLA to Guccifer 2.0: Yep I used to love this stuff. About a decade ago I tried to build a "Bluetooth sniper rifle" where you turn on the mic on a cell behind a door using the Bluetooth. I walked around the Capitol but it didn't really work.

HelloFLA to Guccifer 2.0: Holy fuck man I don't think you realize what you gave me. I'm still going through that stuff and I find buried deep the turnout model for the democrats entire presidential campaign. This is probably worth millions of dollars. I'm going to post it tomorrow. [New line] Oh man. I'm not sure they even CAN redo this because it's based on math and population patterns since the last election... Haha

Guccifer 2.0 to HelloFLA: hmm

Guccifer 2.0 to HelloFLA: ok

Guccifer 2.0-HelloFLA

Guccifer 2.0 to HelloFLA: 😂😂😂

Guccifer 2.0 to HelloFLA: but what stuff do u mean?

Guccifer 2.0 to HelloFLA: oh, i see!

HelloFLA to Guccifer 2.0: Basically how it works is there are people who will vote party line no matter what and there are folks who will actually make a decision. The basic premise of winning an election is turnout your base (marked turnout) and target the marginal folks with persuadable advertising (marked persuadable) You can't move folks around. The targets are the targets. You can't move people around. They spend millions calculating who is persuadable or what we call a "soft democrat" and who is a "hard democrat." I understand why someone who isn't specially trained in politics and campaign data wouldn't realize this. Most press missed it also and it's a jumble. Looks like it wasn't totally finished or it's the underlying data to some master chart. [New line] See here I kind of lay it out. <http://hellofla.com/2016/08/22/exclusive-full-dccc-florida-docs/>

Guccifer 2.0 to HelloFLA: i gonna reblog u in my wp acc

Guccifer 2.0 to HelloFLA: maybe tomorrow :)

Guccifer 2.0 to HelloFLA: though i'm still not sure i totally caught it :)

HelloFLA to Guccifer 2.0: Thanks! I can try to jot some things down tonight and I'll send over how it works. Basically if this was a war, this is the map to where all the troops are deployed.

HelloFLA to Guccifer 2.0: And their strength

HelloFLA to Guccifer 2.0: Searchable by city/county/district/TV broadcast zone(media market)

HelloFLA to Guccifer 2.0: But not only where they are now, but where they plan to be in November and who they plan to target [New line] So for example I can look at FL13 and see temple terrace has X persuadable. Then I drill down into the other sheet and look at 13 and the city and what their demographic makeup is. If I had the software, which I do, then I could build a list and copy their targeting. Blunt it with mail of my own. [New line] The reason pelosi is freaking out is because the numbers are what they are. You can't target people who aren't persuadable. They spent millions probably to figure out who these people are that are conducive to their message and now it's exposed for the other side. Like I said it's like finding the battle map.

HelloFLA to Guccifer 2.0: It's really only half the key. But in the hands of somebody with real campaign skills will recognize it and be able to build the other half. I kind of explained above how this works above but ti's good for all media. Somebody has to look at this map and actually use the data to make a media buy or cut a mail universe. [sic]

Guccifer 2.0 - Future of Cyber Security

Hello everyone This is Guccifer 2.0.

I'm sure you know me because my name is in the conference program list. As I see it, this is the place to discuss cyber security and cyber threats. And may be to propose some solutions. Let's figure out who poses the real threat to begin with.

Cyber security firms are quick to blame hackers for their activity. Yeah, they cause a lot of troubles for business and politics. But, who poses a real cyber threat? what do you think? Is it Guccifer? Or Snowden? Or Assange? Or Lazar? No. It seems obvious. It's plain as day you would say. But still my answer is no. Large IT companies pose a real cyber threat nowadays.

You may perfectly know some of them or may not. But their responsibility for the future of our world is growing from day to day. And I will explain to you why.

So. What's wrong with large IT companies? First. On their way to a global progress and big money they are collecting users' personal data, which is the same as spying on people, because many of us don't even realise they track us online and collect our info. Companies store these data making it vulnerable for leaks.

Second. They create conditions that make people store their info in cloud services. It seems convenient but it's extremely vulnerable because it's thousand times easier to steal the data from the cloud than from a personal cell phone for instance.

The next reason, and the crucial one, is software vulnerability. Tech companies hurry to finish the work and earn money. So they break development cycle very often omitting the stage of testing. As a result, clients have raw products installed on their systems and networks with a great number of bugs and holes.

Fourth. It's well known that all large companies look forward to receiving governmental contracts. They develop governmental websites, communication systems, electronic voting systems, and so on and have their products installed to critical infrastructure objects on the national level. They are aggressively lobbying their interests. You can see it at the diagram that they spent millions of dollars for lobbying. That doesn't mean they will produce better software. That means they will get even more money in return.

Fifth. This is censorship. For example Twitter censors unwelcome users. I can judge it by myself here. You can see how Guccifer 2 hashtag unnaturally abruptly stops trending. It seems impossible that all Twitter users just stop twitting about Guccifer 2 leaks, in a moment. That's why people started Guccifer 3, 4, 5 hashtags to avoid censorship. People also told me their tweets [sic] were not shown in the Twitter live wall unlike to their account's wall.

So, the cyber aggressiveness is progressing nowadays. The number of cyber attacks is steadily growing. What's the reason? What's wrong with the cyber defense? Well, they take wrong measures. They search for cyber criminals, sentence them. But two more hackers appear instead of one convicted.

The real problem is inside. This is just the same as in offline world. This is not enough to prosecute criminals. It requires preventive measures, to fight criminality by elimination of the possibility of crime.

So, what's the right question we should ask about cyber crime? Who hacked a system? Wrong. The right question is: who made it possible that a system was hacked? In this regard, what question should you ask me? How I hacked the DNC??? Now you know this is a wrong question. Who made it possible, that I hacked into the DNC. This is the question.

And I suppose, you already know the answer. This is NGP VAN Company that operates the DNC network. And this is its CEO Stu Trevelyan who is really responsible for the breach. Their software is full of holes. And you knew about it even before I came on stage. You may remember Josh Uretsky, the national data director for Sander's presidential campaign. He was fired in December, 2015 after improperly accessing proprietary data in the DNC system.

As it was agreed, he was intentionally searching for voter information belonging to other campaigns. However, he is not to blame. The real reason voter information became available for non-authorized users was NGP VAN's raw software which had holes and errors in the code.

And this is the same reason I managed to get access to the DNC network. Vulnerabilities in the NGP VAN software installed on its server which they have plenty of. Shit! Yeah? This scheme shows how NGP VAN is incorporated in the DNC infrastructure.

It's for detailed examination, if you are interested. And here are a couple of NGP VAN's documents from their network. If you r [sic] interested in their internal documents. You can have them via the link on the screen. The password is usual. It's also on the screen. You may also ask the conference producers for them later.

So, as you see there's no need to breach into separate users accounts or separate systems. You just need to hack their tech company. This is the feature. Big IT companies lead us to a disaster. In their pursuit for money they release raw software, so their clients are highly vulnerable. It became usual to blame everything on hackers while IT companies just pretend they are working hard to patch bugs and to plug holes. And they even ask for more and more money to correct their own mistakes. As a result they pose a threat to the critical infrastructure elements and the national security as a whole. Total computerization along with inadequate software development may cause a lot of troubles. That's why it's better to use paper sometimes.

We should start now to prevent electronic apocalypse and rise of the machines in the future. Or else it would be too late. As the financial corporations are ruling the world now so the IT companies will rule it in the near future. What should we do? You would tell me I could report a bug to the company as it's commonly done. What do you think they would answer me? Thanks? Or this is not crucial? Or maybe they would even give me some money. Yeah But what could it change? Nothing. Yeah. Really. Nothing at all.

We need to shake the situation, to make our voices sound. Yeah, I know if they find me I'm doomed to live like Assange, Snowden, Manning or Lazar. In exile or in prison. But it's worth it for they are the heroes, heroes of new era.

Thanks for ur attention. See you online!

Role of the DCCC IE

The DCCC IE monitored this open seat for any indicators that this seat could become competitive.

Following press coverage of a series of controversial statements made by Republican Mark Walker, the DCCC IE conducted a short benchmark poll. There was no path to victory for Democrat Laura Fjeld. The DCCC IE did not invest further in this race.

The total district investment in NC-06 was $17,625.

Considerations

- District Dynamics. Rep. Howard Coble has represented this deep-red district for thirty years without any competitive races.
- Fundraising. Both candidates were poor fundraisers.
- Walker Won Competitive GOP Primary. Mark Walker surprisingly won against Phil Berger Jr., who comes from a major political family in North Carolina. It was an expensive primary and runoff that Berger was expected to win.
- Senate Race. Though the U.S. Senate race was among the most competitive in the nation, Sen. Kay Hagan was never competitive in this district.

- Resources would be better spent in competitive districts.

Resources

- Research – There was no book on Walker. Rachele wrote a backgrounder for the poll.
- Tracking Footage – There was no tracking footage resource on Walker.
- Red Box – There was no Races Page.

Narrative and Message

Following a contentious primary against Phil Berger Jr., Mark Walker was expected to win handily.

Walker's ads portrayed him as a Washington outsider vehemently opposed to Obamacare.

Fjeld's one ad described her as a working mom, focused on reforming education. The ad also hit Walker as too extreme, citing his support for bombing Mexico and banning all abortions and common forms of birth control.

No outside groups from either side engaged in this race.

Friends and Foes

- None

MEMORANDUM TO CHAIRMAN LUJÁN

TO: Chairman Luján
FROM: Ian Russell, DCCC Political Director (cell: 402-429-7941)
DATE: March 30, 2016
RE: NC-12 Update (Alma Adams)

NC-12 Overview (Rep. Alma Adams)

North Carolina's 12th Congressional District previously covered Greensboro to Charlotte but with the new maps it only includes Charlotte. In the new 12th District, 51 percent of registered voters are Democrats and approximately 36 percent of the voting-age population is black, down from the previous version's 64 percent Democratic and just over 50 percent black. The breakdown of new district demographics vs. old district demographics is below.

	Old District	New District
African American	50.7%	36.2%
Hispanic	3.9%	12.2%
AAPI	2.8%	4.7%
White Non-Hispanic	43.6%	46.6%

The new map puts the current Congresswoman, Rep. Alma Adams, out of the district (she is from Greensboro). Although Adams won a contested primary for an open seat in 2014 she did not win Mecklenburg County which is home to Charlotte and is the only county in the newly drawn district. Rep. Adams is currently planning on moving to Charlotte from Greensboro. Rep. Adams is being challenged by two other Democrats in the upcoming primary, former Charlotte City Council member and state senator Malcolm Graham and State Rep. Tricia Cotham. The legislature has recently passed a law eliminating congressional primary runoffs this year, so the person who gets the most votes will be the nominee regardless of what percent of the vote he or she wins.

Rep. Tricia Cotham is the only white candidate and has just entered the race in the past week. Some political operatives in North Carolina are speculating that she hopes to splinter the African American vote. She lives in Matthews, NC which is a suburb that is located southeast of Charlotte. Cotham is a K-12 educator who was appointed to the house in 2007 and then elected in 2008 and became the youngest women ever to serve in the NC House of Representatives. Her mother, Pat Cotham, was elected a DNC member in 2010. Cotham's base of support in the district is the suburbs surrounding Charlotte.

Malcolm Graham served the city of Charlotte both as a city councilman as well as a state senator. He has served in leadership roles within Bank of America as well as Time Warner. He ran for Congress in 2014 against Rep. Alma Adams but lost by 22% (7,500 total votes). Despite this loss Graham beat Adams in Mecklenburg County which is the only county in the new CD-12. Graham lives in Charlotte and his base of support will come from the city.

List have been engaged with Rep. Adams team to provide the support necessary to win in a potentially tough primary. Both the CBC and NC delegation are very involved in Rep. Adams re-election.

Biography:

Dr. Alma S. Adams was elected to her first term representing the 12th Congressional District of North Carolina on November 12, 2014. After winning a special election, Congresswoman Adams was sworn in immediately as the 100th woman elected to Congress, the most in U.S. history. Representative Adams sits on the Committee on Education and the Workforce, the Agriculture Committee, the Small Business Committee, and the Joint Economic Committee. She is the Ranking member of the Small Business Subcommittee on Oversight. The Congresswoman is the founder of the first ever Congressional Bipartisan HBCU Caucus and she is part of the Women's Caucus, Congressional Progressive Caucus, Diabetes Caucus, Congressional Black Caucus, Historic Preservation Caucus, AIDS/HIV Caucus, Hunger Caucus, Medicaid Expansion Caucus, and the Art Caucus. Congresswoman Adams also holds a leadership role in the Democratic Caucus as Vice President for the 114th Congress' freshmen class and she serves as a Regional Whip for the Democratic Caucus.

Throughout her career, Representative Adams has promoted quality education for all students, spearheading legislation to boost funds for Historically Black Colleges and Universities, providing nutritious breakfasts in schools and while supporting increased pay for teachers. For 40 years, Dr. Adams taught Art History at Bennett College. While at Bennett, she led the effort to increase student civic participation coining the phrase "Bennett Belles are Voting Belles" and organizing annual marches to the polls. As a former educator, Rep. Adams has dedicated her career to improving the lives of young people and her community.

In 1994, Dr. Adams was appointed by her peers to serve in the North Carolina House District 26 seat. She went on to serve ten terms in the state House. During her tenure, she rose to become the chair of the North Carolina Legislative Black Caucus and was instrumental in passing legislation that improved the climate for quality affordable health care in the state. A working mother of two, Representative Adams pioneered the Displaced Homemakers Bill and successfully spearheaded the state's first minimum wage increase in nine years.

Before serving as a member of the North Carolina General Assembly, Congresswoman Adams served nine years on the Greensboro City Council. Throughout her service to the second district in Greensboro, Dr. Adams worked to create safe and affordable housing and the revitalization of neighbors. Later, Dr. Adams became the first African American woman ever elected to the Greensboro City School Board. It was then that she made a lifetime commitment to effecting social change in her community and beyond.

Congresswoman Adams has one daughter, Linda Jeanelle Lindsay, one son Billy E. Adams II, and four grandchildren, Joslyn Lindsay, Aaron Lindsay, Billy E. Adams III, and Miracle Sumner. Adams graduated from North Carolina A&T State University in 1968 and received her master's degree in Art Education in 1972. She earned her Ph.D. in Art Education and Multicultural Education from The Ohio State University in Columbus, Ohio in 1981.

NH-01 PATH TO VICTORY SUMMARY

PATH TO VICTORY IN 2016:

DEMOCRATS START THIS RACE FUNCTIONALLY TIED (49.7% TWO-WAY SUPPORT), AND NEED ABOUT 7,770 VOTES TO ACHIEVE 52% SUPPORT. VICTORY DEPENDS ON THE FOLLOWING:

- EARN 91% SUPPORT AMONG REGISTERED DEMOCRATS, 62% SUPPORT AMONG REGISTERED INDEPENDENTS, AND 9% SUPPORT AMONG REGISTERED REPUBLICANS
- RAISE SUPPORT IN ROCKINGHAM COUNTY TO 51.5%, FOCUSING IN LONDONDERRY, PORTSMOUTH, HAMPTON, AND DERRY
- RAISE SUPPORT IN HILLSBOROUGH COUNTY TO 50.5%, FOCUSING IN MANCHESTER
- RAISE STRAFFORD COUNTY SUPPORT TO 58%, AND BRING TURNOUT TO 77%, FOCUSING IN ROCHESTER, DOVER, AND DURHAM
- HOLD SUPPORT AT 49% IN BELKNAP COUNTY, AND 51% IN CARROLL COUNTY
- EARN AT LEAST 54% SUPPORT AMONG WOMEN
- MAINTAIN SUPPORT AMONG VOTERS AGED 45+ TO A FLOOR OF 49%
- INCREASE TURNOUT AMONG VOTERS AGED 18-29 BY 3 POINTS, TO 74%, AND MAINTAIN SUPPORT AT 54%

ABOUT THE DISTRICT:

The majority of voters in New Hampshire's 1st Congressional District live in its southern half, centering on Manchester in the southwest and up along the Maine border near the coast, in the Rochester and Portsmouth areas.

Key areas include the base county of Strafford, particularly the city of Dover, Derry, Londonderry, and Portsmouth in Rockingham County, and Manchester and Merrimack in Hillsborough County.

In Rockingham and Hillsborough counties at large, a Democrat must either hold even or lose by a narrow margin in order to stay competitive districtwide. For example, in 2012 President Obama won Hillsborough with 50.3%, and the district with 50.8%. The only other counties he won that year were vote-poor Grafton, and reliably Democratic Strafford. The President received 47% in Rockingham in that year. Also in 2012, which is Shea-Porter's only victory against Quinta, she won Rockingham with 51.3% and Hillsborough by 31 votes, or 50.02%. She also won Strafford with 59.1%.

In Rockingham County, Portsmouth is a base city to drive up turnout, while a Democrat should seek to stem losses in the less-favorable Derry and Londonderry. Hillsborough County includes Manchester, the most populous city in the district, which has been reliably Democratic in the last two Presidential years. Earning strong support in Manchester is key to victory.

The district is located within two media markets. The Boston (Manchester) market covers 92% of the district, and has a political CPP $675 and an issue CPP of $810. It includes the district's southern and central counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham, Merrimack, Strafford, and Belknap. The Portland-Auburn market to the north, covering Carroll County at the remaining 8% of the district, has a years, while voters with household income under $50,000 have comprised 23-25%. Rockingham County has the highest proportion of higher-income voters, while Strafford and Hillsborough voters are more equally distributed in terms of household income. By party registration, the district is 26% Democrat, 31% Republican, and 43% independent or unaffiliated.

POLITICAL ENVIRONMENT:

Over the last several cycles, this seat has passed back and forth between businessman and former Republican Manchester Mayor Frank Guinta, and former social worker and community college instructor, Democrat Carol Shea-Porter. Shea-Porter won the seat in 2006 and 2008, lost to Guinta in 2010, then won it back in 2012, after which Guinta won again in 2014.

Currently, Guinta has been resisting calls for his resignation due to ethical concerns, and faces primary challenges from Rich Ashoob, Jamieson Gradert and Pamela Tucker.

An October 8th 2015 Granite State poll shows that voters are familiar with his ethics troubles, with almost half of first district residents having heard a great deal (18%) or a fair amount (30%) about the controversy. In that poll, 21% of adults in the district have a favorable opinion of Guinta, while 50% have an unfavorable opinion. Guinta is unpopular among Republicans (net -3%), Independents (-13%) and very unpopular among Democrats (-56%). Half (50%) of the district's residents say Guinta should resign, including 65% of Democrats, 44% of Independents, and 34% of Republicans. A majority of likely voters (56%) said they would definitely vote for someone other than Guinta, while 4% say they would definitely vote for him, 16% say they would consider voting for him, and 24% are unsure. This measure is unchanged since July 2015. Most Democrats (77%), half of Independents (50%) and a third of Republicans (33%) say they would definitely vote for another candidate.

Carol Shea-Porter remains somewhat popular in the district – currently 37% have a favorable opinion of Shea-Porter, 30% have an unfavorable opinion, 8% are neutral and 25% don't know enough about her to say. Her net favorability is +7%. Shea-Porter is very popular among Democrats (+50%), unpopular among Independents (-7%) and very unpopular among Republicans (-47%).

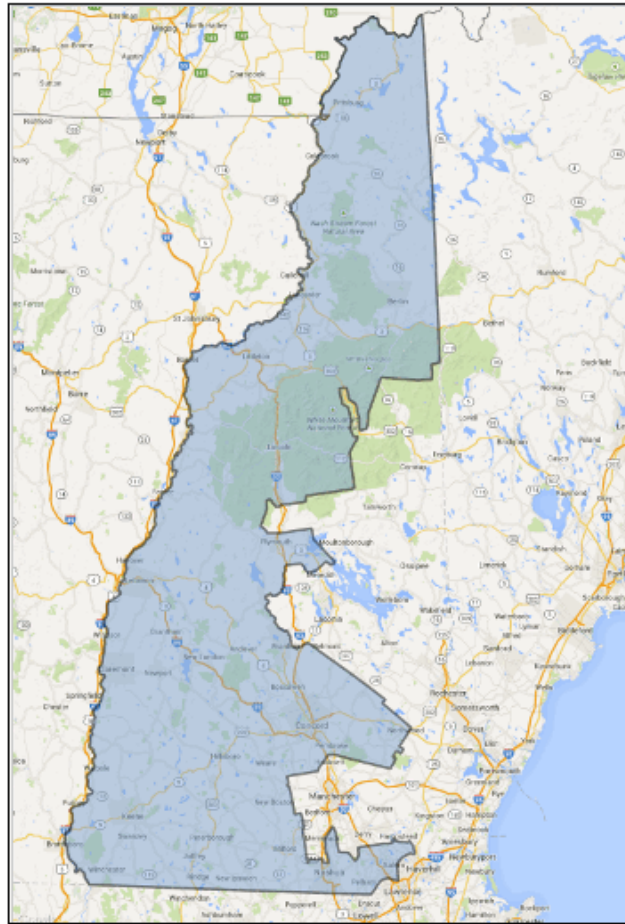

Businessman Shawn O'Connor of Bedford is also seeking the Democratic nomination for the 1st District seat, but is largely unknown among 1st District residents. As of the same October 8th poll, 4% have a favorable opinion of O'Connor, 4% have an unfavorable opinion, 11% are neutral and 81% don't know enough about him to say. O'Connor's net favorability is 0%. However, he has shown a willingness to self-fund his campaign.

Democrats would prefer to face an embattled Guinta in the general election. At year-end 2015, O'Connor had $799,879 on hand, while Shea-Porter had $167,527 on hand. Innis had $129,622 on hand, while Guinta had $367,171.

The primary is September 13th.

In 2014, no third party candidate registered 1% of the vote, while in 2012 Libertarian Brandon Kelly garnered 4.2%. Shea-Porter defeated Guinta in 2012 by 3.8% of the three-way vote. In October 19th 2012 tracking, Kelly's support was greater among registered Republicans than among Democrats, and in a two-way race Kelly's Republican support more reliably transferred back to Guinta. Kelly's greatest support was among Independents at 8% of that group, again in the two-way ballot that support shifted to Guinta, according to the poll. The poll had a hypothetical two-way race tied at 47%, and the three-way race at 46% for Shea-Porter, 43% for

EARLY FRONTLINE INTEL PACKET

KUSTER

April 23, 2015

Dear Frontline Members,

I'm proud to share with you these Early Frontline Intel packets, designed by our Analytics Department to arm you with the strategic understanding of your district you'll need to be successful in your voter outreach efforts this year.

These packets are a sign of my commitment to your success and the expanded emphasis the DCCC is placing on data-driven strategy and programs. I heard from several of you how helpful similar packets were in the summer of 2013, so I am pleased to bring this information to you earlier than ever before. In these packets you will find:

- Analysis of Trends in Democratic Support to help you identify opportunities to further strengthen your own support and mitigate potential areas of vulnerability.
- Analysis of Voter Turnout Patterns, including the most extreme areas of voter drop off in 2014 and areas for you to reengage sporadic voting communities heading into 2016.
- Analysis of Recent Campaign Activity, showing the focus of your 2014 field efforts and where that might have contributed to higher support and/or turnout.
- A Preliminary Look Ahead to 2016, previewing areas of your district where the overall vote, as well as the votes of key demographic groups, are concentrated, and how the upcoming electorate compares to that of recent elections.

These packets are the first in a series of state of the art tools the Analytics Department is building for you and your campaigns this cycle. In the months ahead, you can look forward to additional tools, such as:

- Win Calculator, a tool to pinpoint how many votes you'll need to win in 2016, and how to find those votes through a combination of tools (field, direct mail, television, digital) and tactics (persuasion, turnout, voter registration).
- National Turnout and Support Models, to focus your voter contact programs on those who are likely to vote and open to voting for you.
- National Ticket Splitter Model, to identify persuasion targets who support a presidential nominee of a different party than the candidate they may support in the congressional election.

Should you have any questions regarding about this material, please contact our National Analytics Director, Christina Coloroso, via email at Coloroso@DCCC.org.

Sincerely,

Representative Ben Ray Lujan
Chairman, Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee

DCCC Political Call Sheet

To: Rep. Heck
From: Political Department – Jason Bresler (cell: 202-459-1842, email: bresler@dccc.org)
Date: April 13, 2016
District: Montgomery County Auditor Karl Keith (OH-10, Turner)

Purpose of Call:

Please call Montgomery County Auditor and talk to him about running for Congress against Mike Turner in this Dayton, OH area district.

Cell: 937-545-2704

Email: karlkeith@woh.rr.com

Talking Points:

- This Dayton area seat is made up of 67% suburban and 7% urban voters. African Americans make up 17% of the expected vote. This is the type of district that we have seen react strongly in opposition to Donald Trump and Senator Cruz.
- Auditor Keith has a strong reputation locally for running a non-partisan operation. This is the type of profile needed to take on Turner
- Turner has gotten extremely lazy. This last quarter he spent more ($50,000) than he raised ($35,000). He is only sitting on $500,000. We have time to make this money advantage obsolete. Further, this district is located almost entirely in the Dayton area market (97%) which costs under $100 per gross rating point.
- When Jason Bresler connected with Keith, he informed him "this was something I never imagined doing but I am interested"
- We got his name from his media consultant who said, Keith will likely need to see an IVR poll. We can cross this bridge if he is really willing to enter.
- There is a current "place holder" candidate in the race who will vacate should we find a strong candidate to enter the race. The Ohio Democratic Party would facilitate this.

Background:

- In 2012, candidate Sharen Neuhardt raised just over $580,000 in this seat. She fell 23 points short, despite the President nearly winning this district, with 49% of the vote.

- Congressman Turner is vulnerable because he has not faced a serious opponent in his six terms in office, and this is a swing seat in a cheap, efficient media market (Dayton).

Karl Keith Bio:

Karl L. Keith was appointed Montgomery County Auditor in December 2000 and elected to full four-year terms in 2002, 2006 and 2010.

Mr. Keith began his career as a state examiner in the county/township audits division for the Ohio Auditor of State. He subsequently served eight years in the Montgomery County Treasurer's Office first as fiscal systems analyst and later as assistant treasurer for cash management. He was appointed chief deputy auditor in 1991, a position he held for over nine years prior to his appointment as auditor.

A Certified Cash Manager, Mr. Keith earned a bachelor's degree in political science from Ashland College and a master's degree in political science from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. In 2002, he earned the Ohio Financial Accountability Certification from the State of Ohio, and he completed the Community Land Reform Initiatives Program at Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government in 2009.

Mr. Keith is the past president of the County Auditors' Association of Ohio and was the recipient of the Association's Richard J. Makowski Award as the Outstanding County Auditor for 2012. He is a member of the Montgomery County Animal Resource Center Advisory Board and is the president of the Ashland University Alumni Association Board of Directors.

Karl and his wife, Doris, reside in the City of Dayton.

RE: OH-14 Path to Victory in 2016
DATE: July 17~~6~~, 2015

OHIO'S 14TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT IS ONE OF DEMOCRATS' TOP PICK UP OPPORTUNITIES FOR 2016.

REPUBLICAN DAVID JOYCE IS VULNERABLE.

- Joyce's overwhelming victory was in many ways a function of a nationwide Republican wave. Twelve out of the sixteen congressional races in the state were won by Republican candidates. Presidential cycle turnout will significantly improve Democratic Base turnout in the 2016 elections. The electorate in a Presidential cycle will shift towards Democrats, and greatly enhance the competitiveness of this district in 2016.
- Joyce also experienced a voting loss of 7.5 points between the 2012 and 2014 elections, which speaks to the competitive nature of this district.

PAST DEMOCRATIC SUCCESS PROVIDES A ROADMAP TO VICTORY PERFORMANCE SHOWS THIS DISTRICT TO BE HIGHLY COMPETITIVE.

- In 2012, incumbent Democratic Senator Sherrod Brown carried this district with 50.2% of the vote. His campaign's performance provides a path to Democratic Victory in 2016.
- President Barack Obama tied John McCain in this district in 2008; with 49.8% of the vote. Democratic State Senator Sawyer representing Summit County won with 68.36% of the electorate, and State Senator Cafaro from Ashtabula and Trumbull Counties won his uncontested seat as well.
- The 2012 Democratic Congressional candidate underperformed President Obama by 6.5 points, winning 41.8% of the vote. A more competitive candidate can make this district winnable.

In 2012, Democratic Candidate Blanchard gained 41.8% of the electorate, while President Obama gained 48.3%. Blanchard was only 7.2 points away from the expected Democratic performance.

TURNING OUT KEY COUNTIES AND OTHER DEMOCRATIC POPULATION CENTERS IS CRUCIAL TO SUCCESS IN 2016

- Dominating the turnout in the key counties of Lake, Summit and Cuyahoga is imperative. In 2012, Obama was able to win ~~48.4~~49.1%, 48.9%, 49.3% between 48.8% and 49.3% of the electorate in each these counties, making him only 1.8 points away from winning this district.
- Lake County contains the largest amount of the electorate, making up 31.92% of the expected vote. An average Democratic candidate is expected to win 49.4% of the vote; but the turnout in this region is crucial to Democratic success in 2016. A highly competitive candidate can win Lake County, and maximizing Democratic performance in Lake County is key to winning the district. In 2012, Senator Brown won lake County with 51% of the vote.
- Democratic bases within the district can be found in Cuyahoga County, the north part of Summit County and Ashtabula County. All of which combined make up over 46% of the expected electorate. Together, these democratic base areas form 46% of the projected electorate.
- OH-14 is evenly split between Rural and Suburban communities, and this split is highlighted by the high level of income inequality in the district. The district is evenly split between rural and suburban communities, so a paying special attention to both of these demographics will prove beneficial.

DCCC POLITICAL MEMORANDUM

To: Rep. Bustos
From: Jason Bresler, Great Lakes Political Director (cell: 202.458.1842)
Date: July 20, 2015
Dept: Political
District: US Attorney Steven Dettelbach (OH-14, Joyce – Northeastern Ohio)

Purpose of Meeting:

Thank you for meeting with US attorney Steve Dettelbach. Steve is open to the idea of running for Congress but needs to see a path to victory. Because of his background and potential strength of candidacy, should Dettelbach run for Congress, this seat has the potential to be a tier 1 pick-up opportunity. Please encourage him to enter the race by September 1st.

Talking Points:

- With the right kind of candidate, this is a very winnable race. Rep. Joyce was nominated by President Bush to be U.S. Attorney and did not pass his vet. Running against a U.S. Attorney would start this race off in the perfect frame.
- Rep. Joyce is facing a very legitimate primary from Tea Party darling and former State Rep. Matt Lynch. There is a very real possibility Rep. Joyce may spend down for the March 2016 primary.
- Dettelbach's biggest concern is viability. Please emphasize to him DCCC is working on a deep dive into the numbers to show him the path to victory. Please also assure him that should he enter the race, because of his accomplishments and stature as a U.S. Attorney, this race would become a top priority for the DCCC. We strongly believe he can win this race.
- This race will likely cost $3 million to win. DCCC explained this to Dettelbach and he was not taken aback. Please assure him that he does not need to see the path to $3 million right now and the DCCC will work with him to achieve his fundraising goals. The strong support of Senator Sherrod Brown will be critical here, too.
- Dettelbach will very likely say he needs to earn an income during the campaign and will have to resign from his current job. With help from Senator Brown and his own personal relationships in the Cleveland-area legal community, he should be able to find a good short-term place to land.

- Rep. Joyce will also face a contested primary against former State Rep and Tea Party darling Matt Lynch. Joyce will likely win the primary, but there is a very real possibility he will be forced to spend down to zero for his March primary. Lynch ran against Joyce in 2014 and came within ten points of winning. If Dettelbach enters the race, DCCC will look very hard at what we can do to affect the Republican primary.
- Long-held by former Rep. Steve LaTourette, OH-14 is a slightly Republican-leaning swing district in Northeastern Ohio. Rep. Joyce won the seat in 2012 virtually unchallenged because LaTourette resigned past the primary date and Republicans were able to appoint their nominee. Polling showed a strong Democratic candidate was poised to win this seat following LaTourette's resignation. However, the filing deadline had passed for Democrats and we could not navigate around the perennial token candidate.

Biography:

Steven M. Dettelbach was born in Cleveland, Ohio in 1965. He graduated summa cum laude from Dartmouth College in 1988. He then studied at Harvard Law School 1988-1991. While at Harvard, graduated magna cum laude, served as notes editor for the Harvard Civil Rights-Civil Liberties Law Review and volunteered representing indigent people in the Boston area for the Harvard Defenders. He also occasionally played pickup basketball with Barack Obama at Hemingway Gymnasium.

Dettelbach began his legal career as a law clerk for Judge Stanley Sporkin of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia. Dettelbach joined the United States Department of Justice Civil Rights Division, Criminal section in 1992 as a trial lawyer and also served as the acting Deputy Chief there under Richard W. Roberts (who was later appointed a federal judge). Dettelbach handled several high-profile cases in the Civil Rights Division, including an involuntary servitude case involving 70 Thai garment workers in California, which came to be known as the El Monte slavery case.

He became an Assistant United States Attorney in Maryland from 1997 to 2001, and was named deputy chief of the Southern Division of that office, covering the Washington, D.C. suburbs. There he was lead prosecutor on United States v. Litten, a bankruptcy fraud prosecution involving a wealthy real estate developer, and United States v. Mohr, a case involving the railroading of a Prince George's County police officer doing her job against illegal aliens/criminals who didn't listen to police commands. He was named "Prosecutor of the Year" by the International Association of Financial Crimes Investigators for his handling of a significant identity-theft case as well. He was then detailed as counsel to Chairman Patrick Leahy of the Senate Judiciary Committee from 2001 to 2003. There, he worked on oversight and policy, including the enforcement provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

From 2003 to 2006, Dettelbach was an assistant U.S. Attorney in Cleveland, working on the Organized Crime and Corruption Task Force. In that position, he prosecuted significant corruption cases, including United States v. Nate Gray, a series of cases involving a pay-to-play municipal corruption scheme. He also prosecuted US v.

Democratic Leader Nancy Pelosi

Dear John,

I know you get a lot of mail, so I'll get straight to the point.

- Last year, you and I fought hard to keep Brad Schneider's strong progressive voice in Congress.
- But Republican's spent a staggering $10.3 million to defeat him.

Sadly, Brad's campaign came up short.

We didn't lose this race for lack of effort. Brad and his team put together one of the strongest grassroots campaigns and you were part of it.

Now is our chance to win back this seat for Illinois Democrats. Now is our chance to bring back a strong progressive champion to the House of Representatives.

That's why I'm turning to supporters of Brad's asking you to make as generous a donation that you can today. Early money is so important to his campaign so a gift of $ASK1 or $ASK2 or more can really make a difference.

Brad Schneider is a relentless defender of women's rights; he's an unapologetic leader for the LGBT community; and his legislative vision is a direct reflection of his genuine passion for helping others and fighting for his district.

John, this is why I asked Brad to run for Congress again in 2016. It's also why Speaker Boehner won't let this seat out of his grasp without a fight.

So I need your help. Please join me today by sending as generous a contribution to support Brad's campaign today.

Let's get to work, thanks.

IL-17 PATH TO VICTORY SUMMARY

12-16-2015

PATH TO VICTORY IN 2016:

- DEMOCRATS START THIS RACE ROUGHLY 1,800 VOTES AHEAD WITH 52.6% SUPPORT. MAINTAINING THIS SUPPORT DEPENDS ON THE FOLLOWING:
- Increase support in the Davenport-Rock Island-Moline media market to 53.4%
- Increase turnout in the Peoria-Bloomington and Rockford media markets to 65.0%
- Increase African-American support to 90.0% and turnout to 57.0%
- Maintain a minimum support of 60.0% in Fulton County, 50.0% in Stephenson County, and 55.0% in Tazewell County
- Increase early vote support to 62.0%

ABOUT THE DISTRICT:

- IL-17 is a predominantly rural and suburban district located in the northwest part of the state bordering Wisconsin and Iowa. The major population centers include Rockford, Peoria, and the Quad Cities at the district's three ends.
- There are three media markets in the district: Davenport-Rock Island-Moline covers 56% of the district and has a $135 CPP (politics); Peoria-Bloomington, covers 24% of the district and has a $57 CPP (politics); Rockford, covers 20% of the district has a $48 CPP (politics).
- The district is predominantly White, though there are pockets of African Americans and Hispanics/Latinos in Peoria, Rock Island, and Rockford.

POLITICAL ENVIRONMENT:

- Two-term congresswoman Cheri Bustos is the Democratic candidate in this district. Currently, there are two Republican candidates, Patrick Harlan, a Galesburg truck driver and president of the Knox County Tea Party, and Jack Boccarossa, a former Department of Defense employee from Rock Island County. Bustos' support relies on Democratic voters in Rock Island, Winnebago, and Peoria counties. Traditional Republican strongholds include Henry, Stephenson, and Jo Daviess counties.
- The top of the ticket race will be a highly competitive Senate race between Congresswoman Tammy Duckworth (IL-08) and incumbent Senator Mark Kirk. IL-17 accounts for 4.5% of the overall senatorial vote, however winning here is necessary for winning statewide. In 2014, Sen. Dick Durbin earned 52.3% here, while Gov. Pat Quinn only earned 45.0%. This race will almost certainly increase turnout in the district which should benefit Congresswoman Bustos.
- No ballot initiatives have met the required petition signature requirements at this time. Governor Rauner pledged his support to term limits and a "fair" redistricting measure which may drive turnout. iVote is pledging to get automatic voter registration on the ballot as well.

RECENT ELECTIONS:

- In 2012, President Obama carried the district with 58.6% of the vote, outperforming the 2012 DPI by 3.9 points. The Obama victory was largely thanks to his large vote totals in Peoria County. He won the county with 68.1% of the vote outperforming DPI there by 6.2 points. That year, African-American turnout in the district was 53%, and he earned 94% of the African-American vote.
- In 2012, Bustos won the district with 53.3% of the vote. Higher than expected turnout in Democratic-leaning Rock Island County played a role in her victory (DPI 58.4%; 23% of 2012 vote share versus 21.8% expected) and smaller than expected turnout in Republican stronghold Stephenson County helped propel Bustos to victory. That year she received 50.9% of the vote in the Davenport-Rock Island-Moline media market, 57.1% in Peoria-Bloomington, and 60.5% in the Rockford market. Bustos was a competitive fundraiser, spending $2,187,282.79 on the election compared to her opponent's $2,571,549.53.
- Able to withstand the national Republican wave of the 2014 election, Bustos won reelection with 55.5% of the vote, 2.2 points better than 2012. This was thanks in large part to her strong performance in the less Democratic counties of Stephenson, Fulton, and Tazewell and her aggressive fundraising. Bustos performed 11.9 points above the DPI in Stephenson, 11.5 points ahead in Fulton and 11.6 points ahead of the norm in suburban Tazewell. That year, she received 51.3% of the vote in the Davenport-Rock Island-Moline media market, 64.0% in Peoria-Bloomington, and 60.5% in the Rockford market. On the fundraising front, the Bustos campaign consistently under projected and over performed their fundraising goals. In total, Bustos raised $3,199,627.94 and spent $3,089,767.62 compared to her opponent's $1,153,678.18 raised, and $1,144,068.66.
- 2016 DPI is 51.0%. DPI is down 1.6 points from 2014 (52.6%) and down 3.7 points from 2012 (54.7%). This decline is attributed to the fact that President Obama will not be on the ballot and a longer term shift away from Democrats among rural white voters.

2016 ELECTORATE:

- Using the previous Presidential election as a guide, official Secretary of State records from 2012 show a turnout rate of 67.6% of registrants (294,676 total votes cast).
- Applying that turnout rate forward to the 2016 electorate, we can expect to see 67.6% of registrants turnout, casting 294,676 total votes, again, relying on the latest registration statistics from the Secretary of State.
- To reach a goal of 52% support overall, a successful campaign would need at least 153,232 raw votes. A one-point shift in support equates to 2,947 raw votes.
- The 2016 electorate will come with a notable increase in African-American and youth voters. African-American voters will likely increase from 7% of the vote share in 2014 to 9% of the vote share in 2016. Similarly, voters under 30 will likely increase from 5% of the vote share in 2014 to 8% in 2016.
- In 2012, the overall ballot roll-off was -2.2%. This means that there were 2.2% (6,515) more votes cast at the presidential level compared to the congressional. In 2012, Obama received 16,170 (9.5%) more votes than Bustos while her opponent, Rep. Bobby Schilling received 14,881 (12.4%) more votes than Mitt Romney. This pattern indicates that there were several voters who split their tickets voting for President Obama in the presidential race, but Rep. Schilling in the congressional race.

DCCC Political Call Sheet

To: [REDACTED] Vice President Biden
From: [REDACTED] DCCC – Ian Russell, Political Director (cell: 402-429-7941, email: Russell@dccc.org)
Date: [REDACTED] February 19, 2015
District: [REDACTED] Representative Brad Schneider (IL-10, Dold)

Purpose of Call:

Please call former Representative Brad Schneider and encourage him to run for Congress in IL-10 against incumbent Rep. Robert Dold. Rep. Schneider narrowly lost his race to Rep. Dold in 2014 (51.6-48.4). Given the national headwinds against Democrats and the challenges in overcoming an unpopular governor on the top of the ticket, Rep Schneider ran a very good race.

Cell: (847) 946-1994

Email: bss820@gmail.com

Talking Points:

- Please tell Brad Schneider that he is a valued leader in the House and he is needed back in Congress.
- Making a decision sooner, rather than later, will help prevent potential primary candidates from gaining traction. If he gets in, we hope to avoid a primary because he will be virtually impossible to beat in a primary.
- Please tell Brad that his leadership on Israel is missed in Washington DC, and you hope to have him back in Congress to advocate for a stronger US-Israeli relationship. He was recently in Paris at events for the Jewish community there in the wake of the terrorist attacks.

Background

- President Obama received 58% in this district in 2012. In 2014 Governor Quinn received just 43.3%. Clearly, this is a different district in a presidential year.
- Rep. Schneider lost a close re-election battle to former Rep. Dold. He raised just under $5 million and ran an aggressive campaign but was unable to overcome the difficult environment and poor turnout created by the top of the ticket.
- Rep. Schneider was the first Democrat to represent IL-10 since 1980. He won a tough race with just 50.6% of the vote in 2012.

Biography:

Brad Schneider was elected to Congress in 2012 and defeated for re-election in 2014.

For more than 20 years before that, Brad helped businesses create jobs and grow. Brad guided mostly family-owned companies through the challenges of today's economy, advising companies large and small.

In Congress, Brad focused on strengthening the middle class, rebuilding a vibrant economy and breaking through the partisan gridlock to help move our country forward. He continues to lead on job creation through his service on the House Committee on Small Business. And as a member of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, Brad was an advocate for sensible, engaged foreign policy, including a strong U.S.-Israel relationship.

Brad has deep roots in the community, including longtime service with one of the largest non-profit institutions in the state, the Jewish United Fund/Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago. He is also a member of the Chicago Council on Global Affairs.

He earned his bachelor's degree in Industrial Engineering as well as his MBA from Northwestern University.

Brad and his wife, Julie, live in Deerfield and have two sons, Adam and Daniel. Brad coached his sons' baseball and soccer teams for twelve years.

Agriculture

Luján Voted Against Barring Farm Bill Payments To Entities With AGI Above $250K. In June 2011, Luján voted against a Flake, R-Ariz., amendment that would bar the use of funds in the bill to pay the salaries and expenses of Agriculture Department personnel to provide certain farm bill payments or benefits to a person or legal entity whose average adjusted gross income exceeds $250,000. The amendment was rejected, 186-228, with 102 Democrats voting yes and 76 voting no. HR 2112, Vote #455, [6/16/11]

Budget

Luján Voted Against Budget Control Act. In August 2011, Luján voted against passage of the bill that would provide a process to reduce the deficit by up to $2.4 trillion. The measure would allow the president to raise the debt limit immediately by $400 billion, with an additional $500 billion subject to a resolution of disapproval. It would set discretionary spending caps that would reduce the deficit by $917 billion in fiscal 2012 through 2021 and establish a firewall between security and non-security spending for fiscal 2012 and 2013. It would establish a bipartisan, bicameral committee tasked with making recommendations to reduce the deficit by $1.5 trillion. It would require across-the-board cuts to non-exempt discretionary and mandatory accounts by up to $1.2 trillion over fiscal 2013 through 2021 if committee reductions totaling $1.2 trillion were not enacted. The measure would require Congress to vote on a balanced-budget constitutional amendment by the end of 2011. It also would provide for an additional debt limit increase of $1.2 trillion to $1.5 trillion, subject to a resolution of disapproval. S 365, Vote #690, [8/1/11]

Luján Voted Against Continuing Appropriations Bill To Fund Government Operations Through FY2013. In March 2013, Luján voted against Rogers, R-Ky., motion to concur in the Senate amendment to the bill that would provide continuing appropriations through fiscal 2013 for government operations, including $1.043 trillion in discretionary funds before sequestration. It would provide $517.7 billion in base discretionary funding for the Defense Department and $71.9 billion for veterans programs and military construction as well as $20.5 billion for agriculture programs, $39.6 billion for the Department of Homeland Security, and $50.2 billion for commerce, law enforcement and science programs. The bill would fund all other departments and agencies at their fiscal 2012 enacted levels, with adjustments for

Cultural Affairs

Cultural Affairs Secretary: Administrative Services Directors Generally Have Experience In Administration & Finance – Current Director Had 25 Years Of Experience. “Lujan was an elected member of the state Public Regulation Commission prior to his winning the 3rd District congressional seat two years ago. He had previously served as deputy state treasurer (2002-03) and director of Administrative Services for the New Mexico Department of Cultural Affairs (2003-04). Cultural Affairs Secretary Stuart Ashman said the administrative services director position is an exempt job, meaning it's not protected by civil service rules, the secretary can appoint someone to the position and there aren't statutory job qualifications. ‘Usually, it's someone who has experience in administration and finance. My current (administrative services director) has 25 years as administrative services director for the Department of Transportation,’ Ashman said.” [Albuquerque Journal, 10/20/10]

Luján Didn't Receive College Degree Until After Election To PRC. “A 1990 Pojoaque Valley High School graduate, Luján worked in various casinos from 1993-99 then had stints as marketing director for New Mexico Legislative Reports (1999-2001) and human resources manager at the Downs at Albuquerque (2001-02). Luján didn't have a college degree until after he was elected to the PRC in 2004.” [Albuquerque Journal, 10/20/10]

Cultural Affairs Secretary Called Luján “Invaluable” To Department, Put Department Back On Track. “Ashman, who was appointed after Luján had taken the job, said Luján was “invaluable” during his time with the Cultural Affairs Department. ‘He put this department back on track with the audits and staffing; and (in) keeping the budget on track,’ Ashman said.” [Albuquerque Journal, 10/20/10]

PRC

Las Cruces Sun-News: “The PRC Has Always Had Its Share Of Controversies And Scandals, But None Touched Lujan.” “A graduate of Highlands University after having earlier left UNM, the young Lujan was elevated to chairman soon after being elected to the PRC. The PRC has always had its share of controversies and scandals, but none touched Lujan. And so, when Tom Udall gave up his House seat in 2008 to run for the Senate seat being vacated by Pete Domenici, the timing was perfect for Lujan, who was just completing his first term on the PRC.” [Las Cruces Sun-News, 11/22/14]

Luján Declined To Call For Indicted PRC Commissioner To Resign. “Gov. Bill Richardson said Thursday he's not planning on meeting with embattled Public Regulation Commissioner Jerome Block Jr., who was indicted Wednesday on eight felony charges. Lujan's son, U.S. Congressman Ben Ray Luján, had previously held the seat that Block Jr. captured by winning a six-way Democratic primary and defeating Green Party candidate Rick Lass in the November general election. Asked if Block should resign, Ben Ray Luján said in an interview Thursday ‘these are decisions he's gonna have to make.’ Ben Ray Luján said Block's legal troubles could impact his work at the PRC. ‘Anytime there's a distraction, it's challenging,’ he said.” [Albuquerque Journal, 4/10/09]

Lujan Statement on Government Shutdown;
Rep. Ben R. Lujan (D-NM) News Release

SECTION: U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES DOCUMENTS

LENGTH: 213 words

Washington, D.C. - Congressman Ben Ray Lujan of New Mexico's Third District released the following statement on the government shutdown.

"I am deeply disappointed that House Republicans' continued efforts to undermine the Affordable Care Act have forced a government shutdown. The Affordable Care Act is the law of the land - upheld by the Supreme Court and accepted by the American people in the last election.

"It is clear that House Republicans would rather see the government shut down, New Mexico workers furloughed, and services halted and delayed for many in our communities than allow millions of Americans access to affordable health care.

"For months, Congressional Democrats have called for a conference committee to move the budget process forward. House Republicans refused, instead wasting time while the clock ticked closer to a government shutdown. It's time for House Republicans to stop playing games, stop trying to undermine the Affordable Care Act, and pass a clean bill that funds the government. The longer the Tea Party shutdown lasts, the longer the people of New Mexico will pay the price and the greater toll it will take on our economy."

New Mexico: Congressman Ben Ray Luján: 134,000 New Mexicans with Student Loans Would Benefit from Bill to Allow Refinancing

LENGTH: 452 words

DATELINE: Santa Fe

Democratic Party has issued the following news release:

Congressman Ben Ray Luján of New Mexico's Third District highlighted the impact of legislation that would allow New Mexican's with student loan debt to refinance their loans to take advantage of low interest rates. Luján is a cosponsor of the Bank on Students Emergency Loan Refinancing Act, which according to the Department of Education, would help 134,000 New Mexicans with student loan debt.

"Whether it's buying that first home, raising a child, or saving for a dignified retirement, student loan debt is making it difficult for hard-working New Mexico families to get ahead," Congressman Luján said. "During this period of historically low interest rates, consumers have had the opportunity to refinance loans on homes, cars and more, locking in rates that will save them money in the years to come. Unfortunately, student loan borrowers have been left out, unable to refinance their loans and cut their bills. This legislation takes a commonsense step to help address the growing burden of student loan debt faced by so many New Mexicans."

The Bank on Students Emergency Loan Refinancing Act enables student loan borrowers, including those with graduate and parent loans, to refinance their loans at a lower interest rate, providing an opportunity for borrowers to reduce their payments and put thousands of dollars back in their pockets. According to the Department of Education, borrowers in the U.S. are carrying $1.3 trillion in student loan debt, including $6.1 billion from borrowers in New Mexico. The national average debt load for a bachelor's degree recipient is approximately $30,000. Refinancing loans at today's lower interest rates would save families an estimated $50 billion nationwide, which they could reinvest in their local economy.

This legislation stands in stark contrast to the Republican budget recently passed by the House, which will make college more expensive by cutting Pell Grants by $90 billion and freezing funding for 10 years. It also eliminates a provision that prevents low-income students with need-based loans from accruing interest while they are still in school, adding $34.8 billion to the indebtedness of America's students.

"A college education is one of the most valuable investments a family can make, but the irresponsible Republican budget leaves everyday New Mexicans behind and makes a quality education more expensive," added Luján. "Instead, Congress should stand with New Mexico families by giving relief to student loan borrowers that will also provide a boost to our economy."

DCCC Political Memo Call Sheet

TO: Chairman Luján

RE: Engagement Call – George Norcross

Date of Call: Thursday, March 5th, 2015

Purpose:

Please call New Jersey powerbroker George Norcross to engage him in the committee's goals both nationally and in his home state of New Jersey.

George Norcross
Phone:

Main Points and ASKs:

- The conversation should start by congratulating Mr. Norcross on the election of his brother Donald Norcross last November to represent New Jersey's 1st congressional district (Camden) formerly represented by Congressman Rob Andrews.
- Please thank Mr. Norcross for the support that both he and his family have given to the DCCC and the Democratic Party.
- Inform Mr. Norcross (he knows the map very well) that we have three districts in New Jersey that are a priority (LoBiando NJ-2, MacArthur NJ-3, Garrett NJ-5).
- Remind Mr. Norcross that in a presidential year there will be a spike in turnout amongst our base. In particular voters in South Jersey may be inundated with presidential ads played in the Philadelphia media market, which will help to raise the awareness of election-day and boost turnout in places like Vineland, Atlantic City, Pleasantville and Burlington.
- We need Mr. Norcross' help in recruiting top targets such as State Sen. Van Drew, to run in NJ-2. Ideally, he would call the recruits that we feel are the best and encourage them to run.
- Likewise it would be ideal if he could mention his support when asked by others in his powerful

And once again, one of the files as of April 2016 says the DCCC was ready to work for Hillary Clinton even before the end of the primaries.

Utah's 4th District

District Facts & Media Market:

- Utah's 4th District is located in the center of the state with Salt Lake County containing the largest number of expected voters in 2016 (85.5%).
- 8.9% Hispanic Citizen Voting Age Population (CVAP), 1.2% African American
- The Salt Lake City media market is the only market in the district.

Doug Owens:

- Doug Owens was born and raised in Salt Lake City. His father Wayne Owens represented Utah in Congress from 1973 to 1975 and again from 1987 to 1993.
- Six generations of Doug's family have called Utah home.
- Doug is a business defense attorney.

Race Ratings:

- Lean Republican (Cook Report)
- Safe Republican (Rothenberg & Gonzales)

Narrative & Notable Hits:

Doug Owens is committed to finding pragmatic solutions, and he believes that our Representatives should be working for Utah, not serving the party bosses in D.C.

- Six generations of Doug's family have called Utah home. It was from those ancestors that Doug inherited the values he'll take to Washington – hard work, concern for his neighbors, an appreciation for Utah's unique beauty, and a desire to get things done.
- As a highly respected business defense attorney, Doug brings more than 25 years of experience resolving complex commercial, environmental and employment challenges. He understands what government can do to help business grow, and when government should just get out of the way.
- As Congressman, Doug will fight for your priorities – good jobs for Utahns, responsible spending in Washington, and to protect the things that make Utah special.

Mia Love puts herself before Utah.

- Votes against Utah interests Love voted against the Highway Bill & against education reform that Utahns supported.
- Failing Veterans. Ignored veterans who needed her help, showing how out-of-touch she is with Utahns.
- Using tax dollars for herself, not Utah. Spends more time on cable & out-of-state than delivering results. She was caught TWICE misusing taxpayer dollars on flights, most notably tickets to the White House Correspondents Dinner.

Trump Impact:

- Trump is extremely unpopular in Utah. Public polling has shown that Hillary Clinton could beat Trump in the very conservative state.
- We do not want to nationalize the race, but Trump will certainly hurt Love's chances.

Guccifer 2.0 Hacked Clinton Foundation

Many of you have been waiting for this, some even asked me to do it.

So, this is the moment. I hacked the Clinton Foundation server and downloaded hundreds of thousands of docs and donors' databases.

Hillary Clinton and her staff don't even bother about the information security. It was just a matter of time to gain access to the Clinton Foundation server.

Here's the contents of one of the folders that I got from there

- 📁 Caucus Leases
- 📁 Caucuses
- 📁 Check Request
- 📁 Contracts
- 📁 Convention 2016 files
- 📁 Coordinated Paperwork
- 📁 DC Region 2015-2016
- 📁 DCCC
- 📁 DNC
- 📁 Donor Research and Prospecting
- 📁 Dues
- 📁 emails
- 📁 Expenses
- 📁 February Event
- 📁 Finance 2013-2014
- 📁 Financials
- 📁 Fundraising
- 📁 HFA
- 📁 Insurance Benefit Summaries
- 📁 Intern sandbox
- 📁 Large Contributions
- 📁 Legal
- 📁 Letterhead
- 📁 New Hire Forms
- 📁 ngp
- 📁 OFA
- 📁 PAC Fundraisers
- 📁 Pay to Play
- 📁 Payroll
- 📁 Philadelphia

As you can see, the private server of the Clinton clan contains docs and donors lists of the Democratic committees, PACs, etc. Does it surprise you?

Here are some docs for example

Trump's taxes: Clinton campaign prepares a new provocation

I found out something interesting in emails between DNC employees and Hillary Clinton campaign staff. Democrats prepare a new provocation against Trump. After Trump sent his financial report in May it appeared on DNC servers at once. DNC rushed to analyze it and asked the Jones Mandel company to make an effective investigation. I won't be surprised if some mainstream media like the New York Times or CNN publish soon Trump's financial docs. No doubt who could give them.

P.S. To confirm my words I publish some screenshots of the DNC emails and the first pages of the DNC docs.

The letter from DNC employee Kelly Roberts to Clinton campaign member Tyson Brody. They discuss Trump tax transparency.

Attached document – Trump statements on tax returns. It contains analysis of Trump statements on tax returns.

Attached document - Additional Trump FOIAs Memo. it contains recommendations for additional FOIAs.

To: HFA and DNC
From: Ian Mandel

Re: Additional Trump FOIAs

We have begun reviewing the FOIAs the DNC has sent to date and the records received. This is the first of several memos we will put together with recommendations for additional FOIAs. This memo focuses on several specific areas that may be ripe for additional public record research:

- State and municipal economic development agencies
- Records related to Trump Mortgage
- Federal Lobbying Records
- State Lobbying Records
- Tax Assessments
- New York State and New York City officials
- USDA records relating to Trump Steaks

Our team is available to write these FOIAs, which can then be sent by the DNC.

Guccifer 2.0 - Mike Wendling

Guccifer 2.0 to Mike Wendling: i do believe that people have right to know what's going on inside the election process in fact

Mike Wendling to Guccifer 2.0: so it's not just for the fame and glory?

Mike Wendling to Guccifer 2.0: Are you upset at WikiLeaks stealing your thunder ... or do you still support Assange? They have made some interesting revelations

Guccifer 2.0 to Mike Wendling: i'm glad. together with assange we'll make america great again

Mike Wendling to Guccifer 2.0: are you a Trump supporter? In your FAQ you say you don't support him. Assange is not a fan either.

Guccifer 2.0 to Mike Wendling: i don't vote for trump

Mike Wendling to Guccifer 2.0: Well if you're Russian (or Romanian or whatever) you can't vote for anybody, right?

Guccifer 2.0: i vote for freedom Guccifer 2.0 to Mike Wendling: follow me and make a good story

Mike Wendling to Guccifer 2.0: What do you think about Putin?

Guccifer 2.0 to Mike Wendling: i don't live in russia. i'm not interested in russia and its government.

Mike Wendling to Guccifer 2.0: Not even a little bit?

Mike Wendling to Guccifer 2.0: But you don't live in the USA either - and you are very interested in American politics

Mike Wendling to Guccifer 2.0: I mean, I'm interested in Russia (and the UK and the US too)

Guccifer 2.0 to Mike Wendling: i'm a little bit angry with that. all of u attribute me to russia, but i'm tired of it. i don't care about that country.

Charlie Grapski - Guccifer 2.0

Charlie Grapski to Guccifer 2.0: Here is some of what I have been doing with the Guide to the Podesta Emails - I wonder if you happen to have any emails from Palmieri, or Minyon Moore, or the other two in this Alcantara and Elrod.

All but Moore used clinton related email accounts - so perhaps you have a set of as yet unreleased emails of these individuals.

Info from inside the FEC: the Democrats may rig the elections

I'd like to warn you that the Democrats may rig the elections on November 8. This may be possible because of the software installed in the FEC networks by the large IT companies.

As I've already said, their software is of poor quality, with many holes and vulnerabilities.

I have registered in the FEC electronic system as an independent election observer; so I will monitor that the elections are held honestly.

I also call on other hackers to join me, monitor the elections from inside and inform the U.S. society about the facts of electoral fraud.

Mid-December, 2016

Assange says of Guccifer 2.0's public leaks, "Now, who is behind these, we don't know. These look very much like they're from the Russians. But in some ways, they look very amateur, and almost look too much like the Russians."

Guccifer 2.0 - Wordpress

Here I am Again, My Friends!

I really hope you've missed me a lot. Though I see they didn't let you forget my name. The U.S. intelligence agencies have published several reports of late claiming I have ties with Russia.

I'd like to make it clear enough that these accusations are unfounded. I have totally no relation to the Russian government. I'd like to tell you once again I was acting in accordance with my personal political views and beliefs.

The technical evidence contained in the reports doesn't stand up to scrutiny. This is a crude fake.

Any IT professional can see that a malware sample mentioned in the Joint Analysis Report was taken from the web and was commonly available. A lot of hackers use it. I think it was inserted in the report to make it look a bit more plausible.

I already explained at The Future of Cyber Security Europe conference that took place in London in last September, I had used a different way to breach into the DNC network. I found a vulnerability in the NGP VAN software installed in the DNC system.

It's obvious that the intelligence agencies are deliberately falsifying evidence. In my opinion, they're playing into the hands of the Democrats who are trying to blame foreign actors for their failure.

The Obama administration has a week left in office and I believe we'll see some more fakes during this period.

I guess you have a lot of questions for me. So, feel free to send them via DM.

Kevin Collier - Guccifer 2.0

Kevin Collier: Hey, I have two questions. Why did you stop releasing documents right before the election? Was your goal to influence the election?

Kevin Collier: And one more: What else are you going to release, if anything?

Mike Wendling to Guccifer 2.0 (date inferred)

Mike Wendling to Guccifer 2.0: We're doing a story about you this weekend on the BBC World Service

Mike Wendling to Guccifer 2.0: Would be great to hear your thoughts
